Culinary Olympics Talk Set At OCC

Robert Breithaupt, School College's director of culinary arts, will give a slide and film presentation on the Culinary Olympics held last summer in Munich, Germany, on Oct. 30 to food service students on the Orchard Ridge campus of Oakland Community College.

Breithaupt will talk at 2:30 p.m. on the campus at 1450 and Orchard Lake Rd., Farmington Hills. His presentation is part of the visiting lecture series which is designed to give students in the food service and hotel - motel management programs an opportunity to discuss problems in the hospitality industry with leaders in the field.

Future speakers include Clyde Widemeyer of the University Hospital, Ann Arbor, who will discuss problems in feeding hospital patients and Bruce Stein from Canton, China, who will speak on restaurant equipment and planning.

Fredrick Aldridge, from the Detroit office of the Dept. of Labor's Occupational Safety and Health Administration, recently spoke to students on the rules and regulations required by the Occupational Safety and Health Act of 1970.
