1. Meadow, 32221 Pembroke, Livonia.
THE FOUNDATION FOR MENTALLY ILL CHILDREN offers a Christmas card designed by an 11-year-old boy at Fairlawn Center in Pontiac. The cards sell for $5.20 per box of 25 and are ready for immediate delivery by contacting Mrs. Dale Miller, 6015 Snowshoe Circle, Birmingham 48010.
MAEDC (Michigan Assn. for Emotionally Disturbed Children) utilizes the imagination of an eight-year-old child for one of the five cards the group is selling to carry on its work. Cards run from $1 to $5 per box. Stationery is also available.

MARJORIE HOLMES

PHILIPPE HALSMAN

Holmes, Halsman Town Hall Guests

A Washington columnist and author and one of America's top photographers will appear in Overland Town Hall lectures Nov. 14 and 15.

They are Marjorie Holmes, second lecturer for the Livonia Town Hall series, and Philippe Halsman, cover photographer for Life magazine, Farmington Town Hall guest.

Mrs. Holmes will talk about life in the nation's capital when she speaks at 10:30 a.m. Wednesday, Nov. 14, in the Terrace Theater, 30409 Plymouth, Livonia. She is known for her column, "Love and Laughter," in the Washington Star and in 1972 was picked as the National Federation of Press Women's "Woman of achievement."

She also will speak at a celebrity luncheon in the Mayflower Meeting House following the lecture. Luncheon tickets may be ordered by calling the number on the back of Town Hall season tickets.

Halsman's appearances will be at 11 a.m. Thursday, Nov. 15, in the Northland Theater, where he plans to screen some of his portraits of the famous and tell how he made the shot, and at Vladimir's restaurant for the celebrity luncheon.

Luncheon tickets are $5.50 and reservations should be telephoned to Shirley Hatfield at the Farmington Board of Education by 12 noon Monday, Nov. 12.

Because of the type of program and requests of husbands to attend Halsman's talk, special single performance tickets will be sold at $2.50 and student rates will be offered.

Tickets for the remainder of the lecture series also are available. For the Livonia series, also including naturalist Jean-Pierre Hallet and television personality Virginia Graham in the spring, order tickets from Mrs. Guido Kurnpoch, 14818 Ingram, Livonia.
