FARMINGTON GRADUATES of a special emergency medical technician training program were presented certificates by Dr. Allen Zeiger. From left: Dr. Zeiger, James L. Heath, Farmington Hills; John Early, Farmington; and Terrance F. Ratigan, Farmington Hills. The course, which began this year at Botsford upgrades the quality of emergency medical care service personnel.

Scout Promotes Program

"Operation Red Ball," a where an invalid or child program to identify a room stays to fire fighters, is being promoted by David J. Good, 29963 Old Bedford, as an Eagle Scout project.

Good, will be passing out the distinctive stickers in local schools, and will have them available at his home. The "red balls" are bright red decals and highly visible during the day and night. They are displayed in the window of a room where a child or invalid sleeps. The program is a continuing project of the Farmington Jaycees. The stickers are also available at the Farmington Fire Department, in the Farmington City Hall.

Adult High School Class To Register FARMINGTON Farmington public schools will again offer the high school completion program for adults in both a day and evening session this year.

The day program will be at Shawasssee Elementary School from 9 a.m. to noon daily. Those interested should report Sept. 5, the first day of class.

Evening classes will be Tuesdays and Thursdays from 7 to 10 p.m. at Farmington High School. These classes begin Sept. 23.

The programs offer adults the opportunity to finish high school if circumstances prevented them from finishing earlier. They are given free of cost.

Miss Bosler Plays Recital FARMINGTON Barbara Bosler, North Farmington High School senior, has ended eight weeks at Interlochen National Music Camp.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Bosler of 32383 Baintree Road.

Miss Bosler concluded her summer stay at Interlochen with an organ recital in which she played "Trio Sonata No. 2 in C Minor" by Johann Sebastian Bach. She sang with the Festival Choir and as a member of the Girls' Chorus.

Heeney-Sunquist FUNERAL HOME Dear friends: It may surprise you that there are seventy or more separate items of service in the proper conduct of a funeral. They range from the preparation of obituary notices to the making of cemetery arrangements. The services of the funeral director and his staff, his establishment and equipment is usually a service to the family for the better part of free days in the proper fulfillment of these duties. Respectfully, Walter C. Sunquist

THE OAKLAND COMMUNITY COLLEGE FACULTY ASSOCIATION INVITES YOU TO TRY THIS INFLATION BEATER:

As tuition costs at other Michigan colleges rise faster than the price of beef, O.C.C. fees remain at the same, low $40.00 per credit hour.

As baby sitters grow scarce and costly, O.C.C. campuses open Child Play Centers to care for children while their parents are in class or studying.

As the world of work becomes more competitive and complex, a college education increases your chances for interesting and rewarding employment.
