The temperatures may be hot, but once school starts our minds pick up the brisk, faster pace of fall.

Years of school beginning in September has conditioned us—even as adults—to look toward autumn as a time to try something new—whether that be redecorating a room, signing up for a course at a local college or community center or joining a new organization or interest group.

Observerland, an area of established communities, has a long list of clubs and organizations to choose from—to suit people of all ages, interests and modes of thought.

Look through the listing which FOCUS offers; you may well find just the group you're seeking.

ORGANIZATIONS
CHANGE

Because both people and organizations are constantly in flux, it is possible that a contact person listed here is no longer active in the group or that the group itself may have dissolved. If this is true, we would appreciate your calling it to our attention and apologize in advance for any inconvenience caused.
