

Talent Is Frozen In 'Ice'

amusements

By STEVE BARNABY

Take two stars who have become popular because of recent performances, put them together in a movie, and what do you have?

In the case of "Lady Ice," starring Jennifer O'Neill and Donald Sutherland, a colossal flop.

Miss O'Neill recently was

"Lady Ice"
Now Showing at Ferminon 4
and Americana 3
Rated PG and A2

was popularized by his portrayal of a lackadaisical Army doctor in "Mash" and for his later role in "Klute."

Neither has done his or her reputation justice in this case of a movie that is led by Miss O'Neill and the insurance investigator (Sutherland) who tries to retrieve some of the body.

Directed by Tom Gries, the movie is an attempt to satirize the flood of cop and robber movies.

Sutherland puts in an average performance but is sure to lose fans who think such a fine artist shouldn't even accept that weak role.

Miss O'Neill should stick to roles such as "42" where she says little and looks beautiful. She is certainly beautiful but no actress.

The best that can be said

of the movie is that it gives

Flowers the reassurance that

Florida and Nassau would certainly be beautiful places

to take a vacation.

At most, this one rates

about half a star.
