

Planning an island honeymoon? How about the island Manhattan?

Honeymooners from as close as Albany and as far away as Tokyo can find all they want in a honeymoon spot in fascinating New York City.

New Yorkers love to call their city the capital of the world and there is much to substantiate their bold claim. It's a city of superlatives. It has more theatres than any other city in the world, it boasts the finest dining places, the tallest buildings, the finest shops.

Uptown or downtown, New York has a quality unsurpassed by any city. Its fast-paced way of life conveys an air of excitement that becomes contagious to its visitors.

Its hotels run the gamut from the most luxurious, where a honeymoon week can cost a king's ransom, to literally hundreds of nice, comfortable middle class hostels that almost anyone can afford.

RIGHT IN THE HEART of town is Times Square with its dozens of theatres where one can attend superior plays and musicals. Off Broadway, dozens of small houses offer the experimental plays that will become the theatre of tomorrow.

Within bus, subway or taxi dis-ance is Lincoln Center, where the Metropolitan Opera, Philharmonic Hall and the N.Y. State Theatre appease one's cultural appetite. Radio City Music Hall, with its Rockettes, full scale orchestra, ballet company and first run films provide what is probably the world's greatest entertainment value.

The twin towers of the World Trade Center are so tall that they seem to dwarf the Empire State Building. It's as thrilling to see the vast metropolis from their great height as it is to walk through the canyons between the towering buildings of lower Broadway and the financial district.

EVEN HONEYMOONERS must take time out to eat and this is where New York excels. There is no type of cuisine that its more than 13,000 restaurants cannot provide.

Name any cuisine and New York has it --there are hundreds of Chinese dining places in the city; dozens of Greek, Persian, Indian, Hungarian, Scandinavian, Belgian, Brazilian and Spanish restaurants.

As someone once said, New York may not be the best place to live but it sure is a great place to visit --especially if you're on your honeymoon.
