Bowling Leads Center Classes

FARMINGTON
Starting date for "Learn to Bowl," a new class sponsored by the Farmington Community Center at the Farmington Lanes, 32315 Grand River, will be delayed until Wednesday, Oct. 3.

Class members will receive instruction from Virginia Harris, and will receive a custom fitted bowling ball. A free nursery is provided.

The 16-week class costs $36 including the ball or $42 including the ball and a Chinese cooking classes was so great that new classes have been added.

Other classes still accepting registrations are antiques, ecology of the Farmington area, Saturday guitar, oil painting, papier tole and gymnastics.

Response to the picture framing, stained glass and Chinese cooking classes was so great that new classes have been added.

An afternoon class in picture framing will be held from 12:30 - 3 p.m. on Fridays beginning Oct. 5.

Cilia Hill will give an extra class in stained glass on Thursday nights, and an added course in Chinese cooking will be held from 12:30 - 3 p.m. on Thursdays beginning Nov. 8.

Most of the classes starting next week or later still have openings. Registrations will be accepted at the Farmington Community Center, 24705 Farmington Road.
