her matron of honor. She wore a sheer dress fashioned in southern belle style and printed in yellow, gold and blue flowers. Her flowers were long-stemmed gold and orange daisies and mums.

The bridesmaids were Susan and Patricia Wilmut of Royal Oak, cousins of the bride, and Rena Koebel of Livonia. Colette Molyneux of Union Lake, niece of the bride, was flower girl.

Gerald Gregg of Sarasota, Fla., was best man for his brother. The ushers were Dale Churchill of Detroit, Donald Matthews of Clio and Dean Mosey of Flushing, Mich. Philip Matthews of Clio, the bridegroom's nephew, was ring bearer.

Both mothers selected blue gowns for the wedding and reception in St. Francis Knights of Columbus Hall in Farmington. The newlyweds honeymooned in Florida. The bride, a dental hygiene graduate of Genesee Community College, is employed by two Midland dentists. The bridegroom is a Central Michigan university student and employed in a Midland shoe store.

MRS. RONALD GREGG (Gloria Gazan)

Susan Cockrell Is Recent Bride

Susan E. Cockrell became the bride of Donald K. Rogers in a recent ceremony in St. James Episcopal Church, Grosse Ile. The Rev. Gilbert A. Runkel Jr. officiated.

The couple's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Clyde J. Cockrell of Sumner Street, Redford Township, and E. Donald Rogers of Easton, Pa., and Mrs. Arthur M. Hyde of Windsor, Minn.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of chiffon over satin with a handwoven bodice. She carried a bouquet of white daisies and tiny pink rosebuds.

As maid of honor, Nancy Cockrell of Redford Township, sister of the bride, wore a pink chiffon gown and carried a basket of white daisies.

The couple live in Minnesota following a honeymoon in the west. The bride is a 1966 graduate of Redford Union High School and attended Schoolcraft College and the Detroit Business Institute. Her husband is an engineering graduate of Purdue University.

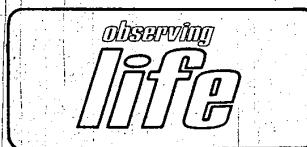

JANICE BURTON

Mr. and Mrs. Hayward V. Burton of Myria Street, Livonia, announce the engagement of their daughter, Janice Louise, to Rick Stephen Sims, son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Sims of Levan Road, Livonia. The bride-elect is a graduate of Bentley High School and attended Michigan Christian College. Her fiancé is a graduate of Cooley High School and attended Michigan Christian College. An Oct. 19 wedding is planned.

SUSAN POIRIER

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Poirier of Meadowlark Avenue, Farmington, announce the engagement of their daughter, Susan Adele, to Jon Gordon Fuller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fuller of Sacramento, Calif. The bride-elect is a 1971 graduate of Farmington High School and employed by the Bank of California in Sacramento. Her fiancé works for Nor Cal enterprises in Sacramento. The couple plan a Michigan wedding in December.

Federated Club Hears Gardener From England

Mrs. John Beatty, who learned to love gardening in her childhood home in England, will be speaker for the Federated Garden Club of Livonia Wednesday, Oct. 3, at 8 p.m.

The club will meet in St. Matthew United Methodist Church, 30900 Six Mile, Livonia. All interested are invited to attend for a $1 donation. Non-members planning to attend may call Mrs. Michael Pulick, 17594 Fairway, or Mrs. Stephen Russo, 36786 Gardner.

Mrs. Beatty, who now makes her home in Ann Arbor, is a master flower show judge for District 2A in Michigan and awards chairman for the state Federated Garden Clubs.

In her talk, she will demonstrate beginning flower arrangements.

Growing up in Leeds, England, she gained an early interest in flowers from her mother, whom she described as a "fantastic gardener."

"The sight of a rose garden or the fragrance of lilacs of the valley still takes me back to England," Mrs. Beatty said.

She is a member of the Ann Arbor and Whitmore Lake garden clubs. The latter has as a special project preserving the quality of the Huron River.

Her gardening specialties include orchids and natural woodland plants.

Earlier Wednesday, members of the Livonia club and other federated garden groups in this area will participate in the annual meeting of District 1 of the Federated Garden Clubs of Michigan, scheduled in the Grosse Pointe War Memorial.

Dr. Barbara Shalucha, associate professor of botany at Indiana University, will be the main speaker, discussing the importance of educating children in an understanding and appreciation of natural ecology.

The meeting in the Farmington Community Center, Farmington Road north of 10 Mile, will begin at 12 noon with an ethnic salad luncheon, with members bringing salads made from foreign recipes.

Mrs. Donald McEachin is luncheon chairman.

Mrs. Delores Ciesla is in charge of the program titled "Tapestry of Nations."

It will include Mrs. Edwin Savelly singing a selection with words written by Mrs. James Love, a song composed by Mrs. Tom Rado and Mrs. Ted Slaby and sung by Mrs. John Dulmage, and another solo by Mrs. George Kastan.

Hawaiian dancing also is on the program. Mrs. Wilfred Strey will be the accompanist.

Guests may attend. The luncheon fee is $1.
