ASK ANYBODY

Henry Thomas had a bad tooth removed, saying he never saw anything to it.

George Webster had it out then went back to work, more than pleased.

Mary Smith had 4 out. She brought in two friends. One had 9 out, the other 7. They said they would send many friends.

Thomas McDonald had 14 removed and his wife 3. They went away singing our praises.

Helen Kelly had all of her upper and lower teeth extracted without getting out of the chair. You never saw a more pleased lady. In three weeks she will be wearing Pt. Section plates that you will not distinguish from natural ones, with a 20 year guarantee.

EDITOR ENTERPRISE:

As the furor of the aurora borealis that sweeps down from the north, that our forefathers fought, bled and blistered that we might vote strikes us, let it not crimp us up so that we lose sight of the fact that the town meeting was a firmly established institution a century before Thomas Jefferson penned the immortal Declaration of Independence.

And let us ponder well the bubble that the result of a contest at town meeting never was designed, have rarely, if ever did have, and ought not to have any influence on state or national legislation.

Let us divorce our local affairs from national politics, throw off the yoke of the elephant and jackass, and be free; free indeed to give to all local affairs our best thought and effort, untrammelled, unhampered by our political affiliation.

Continued in our next, the forbearance of the editor permitting.

Epworth League.

At the monthly business meeting of the Epworth League held at the home of Miss Alma Ely last Monday evening, there was a good turnout of members, but only two of the officers were present. Miss Lucie Sprague, third vice president, presided. The name of Roy Nichols was presented by Mr. Benjamin and he was accepted as a member of the chapter.

Mrs. Welch presented the matter of singing class and stated the terms. A course of ten lessons will be given to cost $1.00 for course; the time of meeting will be Monday evening at 6:30 o'clock at the Methodist church; the lesson will continue for one hour. All are invited to join the class by depositing 50c to pay for one-half the course. The lesson hour will be devoted strictly to singing and no visitors are desired.

After the business of the chapter was dispensed with a social half hour was spent in quiet games.

Arbor Day.

The weather interfered somewhat with the observance of Arbor Day by the Methodist Sunday-school last Friday. Lacking boats and the necessary tackle of a marine outfit, only six small trees were obtained, but these six were planted and arrangements made to plant others as soon as the water subsides.

About twenty-five members of the Sunday-school were present. The pastor gave a short talk on the purpose of Arbor Day and the need of care which shade trees could have. The superintendent, Mrs. Truscott, invoked the Divine blessing upon the planting of the trees and May McGee gave a recitation. All present took some little part in planting the trees.

Will Give Entertainment.

The Ladies' Literary club will give a play in the near future, the proceeds to be devoted to improving and beautifying the cemetery and park. In addition to the play a musical will be given by local and outside talent. Look for dates and program next week.

A Good Bill.

Senator Bradley has drafted a bill requiring both parties to sign affidavits for a marriage license, making the girl liable for perjury the same as a prospective groom in case perjury is resorted to. Males under 21 must have the consent of parents or guardians. No license will be issued on legal holidays or Sundays. Ceremony cannot be performed until the license has been issued for three days. This is understood to be a slap at the wholesale marriages which have taken place at St. Joseph for some years.
