Religion Update

On Sept. 12, the New York Daily News reported my question during a White House press briefing, as to what happened to those White House Sunday religious services.

In my capacity as a newly accredited White House correspondent, I had greatly looked forward to reviewing one of these services. I was more than surprised, therefore, to discover that the last one was on April 15th, and as of this writing, none had been scheduled. The replies to my question only confirmed my fears.

Deputy press secretary Gerald Warren answered, somewhat taken aback, that these services are scheduled according to "no regular pattern," and added that Nixon "will continue to have them."

The Daily News went on to report, regarding President Nixon's press secretary Ron Zeigler:

"Zeigler made the same point in his chat with reporters, adding that a worship service might be scheduled shortly - 'just-to-keep-Kinsolving off balance.'"

As a reporter and syndicated columnist, I have received a few kudos along with assorted fusillades of negative fan mail.

But what can one say when the presidential press secretary announces to one's colleagues of the Fourth Estate that the possible purpose of a potential White House service could be:

"Just to keep Kinsolving off balance."

In gratitude for such an unusual distinction, this column is happy to provide suggestions for Mr. Zeigler's KKOBB (Keep Kinsolving Off Balance) campaign.

THE REV. BOND B. BOWMAN will be honored Sunday, Oct. 14, in Brightmoor Tabernacle, 22420 Fenkell, Detroit, for his 40 years of service to the church. In his four decades as pastor, the church has grown from a small congregation to one of the largest Assembly of God churches in the country. The Rev. Thomas Zimmerman, general superintendent for the denomination, will preach at the 9:45 a.m. service.

Mr. Zeigler ought to contemplate the fact that while the House and the Senate both have official chaplains, the White House has none.

For the post of White House chaplain, this column would like to nominate, not a fellow clergyman, but rather a leading layman and close friend of both the president and vice president: Frank Sinatra.

Mr. Sinatra, it should be remembered, was once seriously considered by one Hollywood producer to play the role of St. Paul. (I remember this fact well, for I can recall suggesting in my parish bulletin that this same producer should consider giving the role of the Virgin Mary to Zsa Zsa Gabor.)

It is true, admittedly, that some of Mr. Sinatra's public pronouncements have been somewhat salty. But since the most celebrated of these was directed towards a lady writer for The Washington Post, the Nixon Administration should have no grounds to disqualify his appointment.

Moreover, there are some who regard Mr. Sinatra as attractively earthy, and besides he could double as both preacher and soloist.

Chaplain Sinatra might even surpass the beneficence of frequent White House preacher Norman Vincent Peale, who said recently:

"There's nothing wrong with the political leaders of this country. They are doing a good job."

Mormons Change Symptoms Topic For Series

About 30 Mormon churches in southeastern Michigan are participating in the Mormon Pioneer Fair to be held Friday and Saturday, Oct. 19, 20. It will be held at the Mormon Church, 425 Woodward, Bloomfield Hills, Friday from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. and Saturday from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Everyone is welcome to attend the fair which will include many kinds of craft and art booths as well as meals.

Five Monday evening lectures by Rabbi Sherwin Wine of the Birmingham Temple, 28611 W. 12 Mile, Farmington, will analyze changes this country is undergoing.

The series, titled "The New America," will begin Oct. 15. All talks will begin at 8:30 p.m.

Rabbi Wine will begin the series with "The Past" on Oct. 15. Other lectures include "The New Masses" on Oct. 22, "The New Politics" Oct. 29, "The Old and the Young" Nov. 5 and "Beyond Democracy" Nov. 12.

"America is undergoing revolutionary change," the rabbi said in announcing the series. "Within 50 years it will be totally unlike the America we know. Watergate, Vietnam, southern California - these are symptoms of the change."

Registration fee for the five lectures is $10 for members of Birmingham Temple and $20 for non-members.
