I'll find it." he added.
"I have nothing derogatory to say of the city itself," Purdy added, "out we are
lessing our girl."
He says there was a police

"every IS minutes" when he first moved here, in 1983.
Now he feels they no longer clear up the streets as fast.
He would like to see the athletic program "sicked off in a big way," but he doesn't hink it needs any more tax money.
