

Dinner Dance Aids Birthright

Birthright of Western Wayne County will raise funds for its counseling for problem pregnancies with a dinner dance Saturday, Nov. 10, in the Mayflower Meeting House in Plymouth.

The dance will begin at 8 p.m. and tickets are $20 a couple. They may be ordered by calling the local Birthright office, 2249 Middle Belt, Garden City.

Florence McDermott of Northville and Maureen McCleary of Livonia are co-chairmen for the dance. Working with them are Catherine Towler of Romulus and Judy Bloomquist of Northville.

Birthright of Western Wayne County is a non-profit organization that serves residents of nine communities, including Plymouth, Livonia, Garden City, Westland and Redford Township.

Opened early last summer, it is staffed by volunteers and offers help to women who want to know alternatives available to a client with a problem pregnancy.

Besides counseling, the volunteers help put with maternity and baby clothing and equipment when needed.

Its funds come from voluntary contributions from individuals and organizations and projects such as the upcoming dinner dance.

Members of the board of directors include Marie E. Gonzales, Nancy E. Austin, Patrick J. Doyle, Dr. Richard V. Jaynes, Judge Richard L. Hammer, Donald Hawkins, the Rev. Franklin Williams and Frank X. Austin.

Disabilities Panel Set

Livonia-Redford Chapter of the Michigan Association for Children with Learning Disabilities will hold a panel discussion (family services relating to the educationally-handicapped child).

The discussion is set for Wednesday, Nov. 7, at 7:30 p.m. in the Franklin High School, 4150 Franklin Rd., Livonia.

Charles Landrum, revenue agent from IRS; a representative from the Metropolitan Health Plan of Blue Cross; Mrs. Velma Glass, RN;

OU Schedules New Workshop

A personal development workshop for women in business will be held at Oakland University, Rochester, on Saturday, Nov. 3.

Joseph Lughem, director of the National Alliance of Businessmen, Detroit, will conduct a two-hour session on: psychological communication. It is designed for those interested in practicing effective methods of human interaction as applied to a work setting.

Dr. David G. Smith, Oakland University, will conduct a session of coping behaviors dealing with stress reduction, alternative actions in seemingly unchanging situations and how-to of coping.

Sister Jacqueline Cullen, archdiocese of Detroit, will present an analysis of leadership components for personal development and for managerial ambitions.

Women To Hear Of Girlstown

Mary McGregor, director of Girlstown in Belleville, will be speaker for the Women's Club of Plymouth, Friday, Nov. 2, at 12:30 p.m. in St. John's Episcopal Church, 574 S. Sheldon, Plymouth.

She will talk about the future of homes such as Girlstown. Members are invited to bring guests.

Industrial RNs Set Cancer Conference

A cured cancer patient who was diagnosed as having brain cancer 22 years ago will be featured speaker at the industrial nurses conference on cancer.

The conference will be held at the Mercy College Conference Center, 8200 W. Outer Drive at the Southfield Expressway on Saturday, Nov. 3 from 8:30 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Reservations are being accepted by the American Cancer Society, 15251 W. McNichols, Detroit.

Area Nursery Plans Auction

The Plymouth Children's Nursery will hold its second annual masterpiece auction Monday, Nov. 5, at 7 p.m. in East Middle School, 1042 S. Mill Street.

Bids will be taken on handicrafts and items made by the nursery members.

Soroptimists Offer LPN Scholarship

Women in the Westland and Wayne areas who are interested in becoming licensed practical nurses but need financial assistance may apply for scholarships offered by the Soroptimist Club of Wayne-Westland.

Application blanks are available at the Wayne Chamber of Commerce, 35816 Michigan. They must be returned by Nov. 15.

The club began its program in 1971. Theresa Pate, first recipient of the grant, graduated from Licensed Practical Nursing school in Ann Arbor last year, and the second, Janice McLaughlin, will begin her studies at Mt. Sinai Hospital in Detroit on March 1.

Your Choice!
(Matching Chairs sale-priced from only $39.)

Read why only NEWTON'S can guarantee you custom-made satisfaction at mass-production prices! By joining with select stores across the country offering the same wonderful "custom-made" service, we are able to ensure a continuous high-level of demand to the industry's finest craftsmen. This eliminates the normal high charges usually (and necessarily) associated with custom work. The same principle applies to the fabric fillings, the frames, in fact to everything down to the very tacks.

And the result is a truly custom-made sofa or suite in YOUR living room... and the exclusive combination of fabric, color, length and style is YOURS ALONE, because it's tailored to your specifications. Benefits well worth the guaranteed 4-week delivery arrangement. Of course, if you must have your new furniture "right now," no problem — immediate delivery from our extensive inventory.

10-DAY HOME TRIAL!

Live with your choice for 10 days — If you don't love it completely, Newton takes it back! No questions asked!

(Try THAT on with any mass-production retailers!) With a warranty like that, doesn't it make sense to insist on exactly what you want? Come choose from 180,000 custom-order combinations! And ask about our unique 5-year guarantee!
