

National Band Selects A Farmington Marcher

FARMINGTON Most Americans are avid parade watchers, whether it's the Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade or the Tournament of Roses Parade on New Year's Day. But only a few ever have a chance to participate. Ronald L. Kendall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kendall of Farmington, is one of those few.

Kendall will play with the 1973 McDonald's All American High School Band in both the Macy's and Tournament parades.

He was selected by a panel of band directors on a nomination from the North Farmington band department.

Band members represent each state and the District of Columbia with usually two members from each. This is the first time a Farmington student has been selected to join the band.

Kendall will receive an all-expense paid round trip to New York and California for the parades. Each trip will include a program of tours, special activities and rehearsals.

A student at North Farmington High for the last two years, Kendall was previously a 10th grade student at Franklin High School in Livonia.

Kendall's musical career began in fifth grade at Hayes Elementary School in Livonia. He later attended Whittier Junior High.

As a trombone and string bass musician, Kendall has played first trombone in the Southfield Youth Symphony and scored high in both the state festival and the honors band.
