Ski Club Looks For Members

FARMINGTON
The second meeting of the Farmington Ski Club for adults will be held at the Farmington Community Center on Monday, Nov. 5 at 8 p.m.

All skiers or would-be skiers may participate in the planning stages of the ski club.

It was decided at the October meeting that all who joined and paid their dues before Jan. 1, would be covered for 1974 membership as well.

The club was organized by E. Marshall Greene who served for five years on the National Ski Patrol and has been a certified instructor for 12 years.

E. MARSHALL GREENE, a noted Farmington ski enthusiast, will help the Farmington Community Center organize a new adult ski

North Band Nets $4,000

FARMINGTON
More than $4,000 was collected during the fourth annual North Farmington Band and Orchestra Boosters Tag Day.

About 150 students dressed in band and orchestra uniforms and 40 adults collected the funds in 27 shopping center locations frequented by Farmington Hills families.

Tags were sold granting the buyer admittance to a tag day concert to be held in November.

New Social Worker Named

FARMINGTON
Mrs. Kay Leuken has been named the new youth assistance social worker for Farmington and Farmington Hills.

Mrs. Leuken, who has a BS degree in sociology and psychology and an MS degree in criminology, served for three years as corrections coordinator for the Indiana Criminal Justice Planning Agency.

Mrs. Leuken replaces Gasper Novara, who left for the youth assistance program in Rochester.
