With one week remaining in the Hazel Park harness meeting and two in the DRC campaign. It's about time to start thinking of 1974 and how Racing Commissioner track doesn't have lights, from the late meeting and two in the DRC campaign. It's about time to start thinking of 1974 and how Racing Commissioner track doesn't have loop much sime of the problems be laces.

He doesn't have too much time for thought before he must, by law, announce the horoughbred dates for next year. It will be an interesting announcement insamuch as it will disclose to a point what the harness racing tracks will be allotted.

The Detroit Racing Associtation has asked for 121 days next year and it is surnised to accept the additional 31 days and will cose its 90-day session on Nov. 10. Hazel Park will adopt an early mitter ampaign on Nov. 14.

Perhaps the most startling thing about the Letter of the Park Park accepted the dates and will open an early winter campaign on Nov. 14.

Perhaps the most startling thing about the start will be under the late meeting is that Hazel Park will have a 3-30 p.m. post on weekdays and 2:30 p.m. on Saturdays.

All of which means the inal three or four races will be under the lights, some the sold tales... thoroughbred can't race under lights. The answer to that is they have at Hazel Park and the DRC in the past three or four years.

We can't understand why the east side track isn't following the pattern of the DRA and the DRC in the past three or four pass.

mer Racing Commissioner James Inglis years ago. The difference is that Inglis suggested all trotting meets at Hazel Park and vice versa.
It never got off the ground.
No. 3 - Both running tracks
will have later post times post to the 3:30 afternoon and 2:30 Saturday starts.
As indicated above DRG
Vice President Dick Wilson denies any such thoughts for his racing plant . that means early racing on the west side and late on the east.

No. 4 - Michigan's thoroughbred tracks are hoping Sunday racing will be approved by the legislature for 1974. Ohio has such a law effective next year and there are indications Pennsylvania and New York will follow. and New York will follow. Seems reasonable that the legislature will pass the mea-sure especially since Windsor Raceway can race on Sun-days.

Remember a few years back when the blue laws prevailed in Canada? One couldn't buy anything, get a newspaper or go to any kind of a sporting event on the Sabbath. Times sure have changed.

Western Tops Canton

There was only one deficiency in new-horn Plymouth Canton's highest scoring performance of its initial varsity football campaign. A defensive classic it was not and despite Canton's five touch-downs, the Chiefs wound up on the short end to Walled Lake Western, 42:33.

Western led all the way after Jeff Parrish rambled 43 yards for the first of his four six-pointers five minutes into

The game was one of the highlights of Canton's dedica-

Stunned Falcons Grounded, 34-23

Walled Lake Central ran three offensive plays and all but ran Farmington right into the loss column.
Central's first three plays from scrimmage netted touchdowns of 58, 62 and 80 yards and the Falcons found themselves down, 20-0.

It was Farmington's third setback in six outings and gave the Falcons a 22 mark in the Inter-Lakes Conference.

span to slice it to 209 at the latest was Farmington's thind and the later-Lakes Conference.

Walled Lake upped its lead to 34-3 after three quarters with Farmington tallying twice in the final 12 minutes.

"We were half in shock." stated Farmington Assistant Coach Dave Catherman. "But the kids didn't quit after those three quick scores. They really came back."

Central opened the contest with a $4-yard screen pass touchdown from Craig Imhoff to Mark Pieras. Farmington was stymied on its next two drives and Walled Lake exploded with two more scores.
