The show, commented by Vogue fashion representatives Minor McArthur and Mary Holtman, will be at 12:30 and 2:30 p.m.; the center is located at Eight Mile and Greenfield.

Tri-Deltas Set Dinner

The Dearborn Western Wayne County alumnae chapter of Delta Delta Delta will hold a potluck dinner in conjunction with its annual celebration of Founders Day, Tuesday, Nov. 13.

Women interested in attending should call hostess Nancy Swartzweiler, 16470 Wayne Rd., Livonia, to find out what dishes are still needed.

Members are asked to bring a favorite recipe or handmade ornament for a holiday auction following the dinner.

Madonna Sets Enrollment

Winter term registration for Madonna College students will take place Wednesday through Friday, Nov. 14-16, and on Monday and Tuesday, Nov. 19-20, from 9 to 11 a.m., 1 to 5, and 7 to 9 p.m. People who wish to be admitted for the new term, which begins Jan. 7, should contact the Office of Admissions at this time.

energy and fuel, transportation, land use and public services in southeastern Michigan.

Harry Tauber of Detroit Edison Co. will be the keynote speaker. Tauber has been involved in engineering, system planning and operations at Edison since 1951 and has conducted energy and power workshops around the world.

AAUW members and outside resource persons will conduct workshops in the afternoon.

Dr. G. Charles Kyker, assistant professor of physics at Oakland University, will discuss the energy crisis discussing the conservation of fuel and energy by individual and industrial users.

Charles Blessing, city planner for Detroit, will discuss city planning, the lack of physical and economic planning in the metropolitan area and the quality of public services.

Ruth Ogawa, land use authority, will discuss "Who has the right to control the development (or nondevelopment) of a certain area of land?"

Gary Krause, manager of transportation and land use planning for SEMCOG, will talk about the tension between mass and rapid transit, the city and suburbs and the fuel shortage and the individual.

Local women working on the conference include Dee Schoeneich of Farmington, exhibits; Mrs. Douglas Myers of Plymouth, the book sale; and Mrs. James Auge of Livonia, publicity.

Mrs. Owen Sudman of Livonia is hostess chairman and will be assisted by Barbara Miller and Dee Schoeneich of Farmington as well as Mrs. Robert Larkin, Mrs. Arthur Medwedeff and Mrs. Cornelius de Stigter, all of Livonia.
