

IN THE POCKET

By W.W. EDGAR

Dick Rütger, the Wisconsin bowler who has been making a name for himself on the Pro Bowlers Tour, put on quite a show to win the Canada Dry Open at Hartfield Lanes last Tuesday evening.

Coming from behind, he paced the field into the finals and topped off his performance by easily defeating Larry Laub in the championship match, 204 to 180.

The other finalists include Jim Goldman, Art Trask, one of the leaders, and Johnny Hudson.

Dave Soutar, the former Detroitier who won the Hartfield Lanes twice in the past, failed to qualify.

Rick Capaldi left his home base at Westland Bowl this week just long enough to pace the field in the high scoring Wonderland Classic.

Putting together games of 210, 280 and 203, he posted a 692 and left his rivals far behind.

George Stefan's Viscount team found the range for a 3215 series on games of 1092, 1073 and 1050.

Tom Nolan, Farmington Hills treasurer, knows his way around bowling lanes, too.

Bowling in the Fun Lovers League at Country Lanes he took top honors with a 254 game in a 568 series.

At that, he had to yield single game honors for the

Redford Stars Still Unbeaten, Crush Helcats

The Redford entry in the Seaway Hockey League, the B&S Stars, knocked off the St. Clair Shores Helcats, 7-4, for its eighth league victory against no setbacks and 10th overall in 10 outings.

Tom Woolsey paced Redford with two goals.

Redford has a firm hold on first place in the six-club league with 16 points followed by Windsor with nine, Wheatley with eight, Leamington seven and Cottam tied for last with St. Clair Shores at six points each.

week to Bob Nahaz, of the Elks, who fashioned a 256 in a 642 series. The third bowler to fashion a high game was Chuck Robinson, a 168 average bowler, who put together games of 255, 200 and 174 for a 629.

The women did some fancy scoring at Farmington Lanes. When the final pin fell it was Jean Dembeck, in the Noon Classic, showing the way with a 245 in 651. She had to yield single game honors to Irene McNaught who came through with a 269 in 615.

Meanwhile, Don Hunt topped the Teen Classic with a 227 in 635; Brian Tupper paced the Parent league with a 222 in 604 and Les Harden moved to the top of the list in the Mixed Classic with 237 in 671.

Although scoring was a bit above average at Bel-Aire, Jerry Garber was the only one to break the 700 barrier. He did it in the Monday Mixers League where he posted a 724.

In the Classic it was Al Cogan who moved out in front with a 687 to beat Dean Shiffman by seven pins.

There was quite a battle in the Senior House League where Dick Coppins emerged on top with a 640 to gain a two pin lead on Greg Matter. Herb Smith landed third with 627 and Ron Goslin added a 621.

John Lennon ran away with scoring honors in the Businessmen's League when he produced a 690. At this figure he left his two closest pursuers — Bob Kesky and Aaron Lipshy — far behind, tied at 619.

A DEAL'S NO DEAL IF THE DEALER'S NOT AROUND NEXT YEAR
Don't be surprised if a lot of dealers fall off the bandwagon this year. You know, here today gone tomorrow. Point is, Arctic Cat's gonna be around for a long, long time. Same with Cat dealers. Like us. So don't get stuck with an over-the-hill snowmobile. With no place to go for parts and service. Instead, stick with the winner. Somebody who'll be here today - AND tomorrow. The one and only Cat. And us.
