

A BENEFIT PERFORMANCE of "Don't Drink the Water" will be given at 8 p.m., Nov. 15 at the Farmington Players' Barn. The $6 donation, which includes a champagne after-glo, will be used to benefit the Farmington Community Center. The Woody Allen comedy will portray (left) John Powers as Axel Magee, Ellen Rosen as Susan Hollender, Hope Nashost as Marian Hollender and Jim Brownold as Walter Hollander.

Helping A Child

THE FARMINGTON Hills Police Command Officers Assn. donated $200 to Botsford Hospital recently to pay for a resuscitator for the pediatrics ward. The money came from the sale of bumper stickers welcoming people to "Farmington Hills—the Nation's Newest City." Nurse Pat Nagel demonstrates the resuscitator for Det. Sgt. George Maier. ### Slate Site Plan Hearing

FARMINGTON Board of Education members will meet with administrators and residents at 7:30 p.m. Dec. 11 to review site plan goals for Farmington area schools. Board member, Emma Makinen, urged the board to develop site plans for improving the physical appearance of individual schools within the district. During the meeting the board will hear from persons involved in developing and implementing site plans for some schools. The board is expected to make a policy following the meeting on whether all schools in the district should have site plans.
