

Richard Toohey Claims Bride

Richard William Toohey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry P. Toohey of Westmeath Avenue, Farmington Hills, claimed Sandra Mary Willets as his bride in a ceremony Nov. 23 in St. Paul on the Lake Catholic Church, Grosse Pointe.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Burton Willets of Grosse Pointe.

The Rev. James Cronk officiated, and a reception in the Country Club of Detroit followed the evening ceremony.

The bride's empire gown had a bodice of ivory alen lace and a double flounce on the long sleeves and at the hemline. Her veil was a short mantilla and she carried white roses with stephanotis and ivy.

Five attendants were sashara being jersey crepe gowns and carried fall flowers with baby's breath and ivy.

Renee Adams of Grosse Pointe was maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Jane and Susan Willets, sisters of the bride, May Kay Kernan of Grosse Pointe and Mary Lou O'Connor of Royal Oak.

John William Thomas of Lansing was best man. The ushers were the bridegroom's brothers, Paul, Raymond, and Thomas Toohey, and Brian MacDonnell and Paul Adamian of Farmington Hills.

The couple will live in Wilkom.

The new Mrs. Toohey attended Western Michigan University and is employed as a secretary for Visual International. Her husband graduated from WMU, where he was president of Delta Sigma Phi fraternity, and is employed by George F. Vassilis & Co.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN ALLEN McDONALD (Elaine Catherine Ferrar)

Vows Are Spoken In Wayne Church

Elaine Catherine Ferrar became the bride of John Allen McDonald in a recent ceremony in St. Patrick Catholic Church, Wayne. The Rev. R.J. Klauke officiated.

Mrs. McDonald is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Ferrar of Wichita, Kan. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John McDonald of Farmington Hills.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white gown trimmed with chintilly lace and seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white roses and stephanotis.

As maid of honor, Mary Grunow of Grosse Pointe wore a floral yellow crepe gown and carried a basket of yellow and orange mums. The bridesmaid was Kathy Slocum of Farmington Hills.

The best man was Ron Peterson of Belleville. Bob Lynn of Canton Township, Marshall Slocum of Farmington Hills and Mark Ferrar of Wichita, were ushers.

The reception was held in the Thunderbird-Hilton Inn, Plymouth.

The bride is a graduate of Michigan State University and is employed by the Jackson County youth home. Her husband is a graduate of the University of Michigan and is employed as an IBM marketing representative.

The couple will make their home in Saline.

Couple Married In St. Genevieve

St. Genevieve Catholic Church in Livonia was the setting for the recent nuptial vows of Barbara Ann Ministrelli and David Leslie Staats.

Their parents are Mr. and Mrs. Louis Ministrelli of Sunnysdale Avenue, Livonia, and Mr. and Mrs. Dalton Norman of Van Born Avenue, Westland.

The Rev. F.A. Wolber officiated for the double-ring ceremony and the bride was given in marriage by her father.

She wore an organza gown with lace and satin ribbon trim and a four-tier veil that fell from a camelot headpiece. White roses, carnations and starflowers and one red rose were in her cascade bouquet.

Marge Ministrelli, the bride's sister, wore a gown of white lace and pink chiffon and a matching picture hat for her duties as maid of honor.

The bridesmaids, similarly dressed in white and lavender, were Mrs. Angie Cossin, another sister; Mrs. Bonnie Ministrelli, a sister-in-law; Sharon Karns, the bride's cousin; Darlene Norman, the bridegroom's sister; and Florette Ivanoff and Diane Blaszczyk.

Patrick Ryan was best man and the ushers were Lee Cossin, the bride's brother-in-law; Peter and David Ministrelli, her brothers; Mike Bologna; Al Ray Bologna and Larry Rak.
