Hill-Burke Rites Held

Diane Elizabeth Burke and James Richard Hill were united in marriage in a recent candlelight ceremony in St. Paul Presbyterian Church of Livonia.

The Rev. William McGaughey officiated and the soloist was Carl Farquhar.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry B. Burke of Livonia and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hill, also of Livonia, are the couple's parents.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a polyester crepe gown with a satin finish and pearl trim. A matching headpiece held her veil and she carried miniature white carnations, chrysanthemums and gladioli.

Bridesmaid Karen Paldan made the mint green gowns the attendants wore with matching hats.

Audrey Shiflet was maid of honor and Colleen Murphy joined Miss Paldan as bridesmaid. Kathy Burke was flower girl.

The men in the wedding party wore mint green shirts and dark green crushed velvet tuxedos. Dan Freese was best man and the guests were seated by Wesley Freese and Bob Gassel.
