

Parrott-Allcorn Vows Spoken

Jody Parrott became the bride of James Allcorn in a recent ceremony in Our Lady of Victory Catholic Church. The Rev. Wittstock officiated.

The couple's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Parrott of Novi, and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Allcorn of Redford Township.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a silk organza gown with Victorian neckline and sleeves.

As maid of honor, Cathy Rustad of Redford Township, wore an orange organza gown. Bridesmaids were Beth and Susan Parrott of Novi, and Sharon Allcorn of Redford Township.

Bill Allcorn of Redford Township was best man.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the Holiday Inn, Farmington. The couple honeymooned in northern Michigan and live in Westland. Both are graduates of Thurston High School.

Class Dec. 6

The Plymouth Childbirth Education Association will begin a new series of classes for expectant parents on Thursday, Dec. 6, at 7:30 p.m. in Newburg United Methodist Church, 35500 Ann Arbor Trail, Livonia.

Another series will begin Tuesday, Dec. 18, in Plymouth East Middle School, 1942 S. Mill.

The classes are aimed at preparing both parents for the birth of their child. They focus on labor, birth, neuromuscular control and effective breathing techniques. Also included in the course is a showing of the film, "The Story of Eric."

Couples interested may call Mrs. John Cross, 371 Blunk, Plymouth, or write to the association at Box 311, Plymouth, 48170.

City Women Set Luncheon

A Christmas luncheon in Huck's Bavarian Village, 27731 Five Mile, Redford Township, is planned by the Livonia City Women's Club Thursday, Dec. 20.

Members are asked to bring donations of mittens, socks, hats and other warm clothing for children in the Plymouth Center for Human Development. Reservations should be made by Dec. 15 with Mrs. Dorothy Bruce, 29218 Broadmoor, or Mrs. John Van Lier, 15604 Farmington Road.

Benefit Set For Mission

The 10th annual benefit for the Rev. Roman Thelsen, a Maryknoll missionary in Korea, will be held in St. Alphonsus Catholic Church, W. Warren and Schaefer, Dearborn, on Friday, Dec. 7 at 8 p.m.

Sponsors are the IHM Circle, made up of members and former members of the parish. The circle has sponsored the event each year to help the missionary work among orphans, lepers and forsaken old people.

Handmade items, Christmas decorations and paintings will be sold, and refreshments will be served.
