LEVI'S FOR GUYS AND GALS

local news

By MARIE LONG GR 4-3114

With the passing of one of my closest friends, Mrs. Evelyn Jeffery, on Nov. 20, I wish to offer my deepest sympathy to her devoted husband, Richard Jeffery of Wesley Farmington.

Evelyn came to Michigan as a child from my home state of New Jersey. She attended art school in Detroit and was privately educated. For 30 years she assisted Mr. Jeffery in his appraisal business.

She also helped the artist design and plan the large window for the Narbonne Park Methodist Church on 11 Mile Road where Rev. Mercer gave the eulogy at her funeral service.

Evelyn was loved by many because of her generosity and love for mankind. I for one shall miss her.

Mrs. Ann Curtis of Kendallwood recently visited her brother, Joseph Sabo of South Bend, Ind., for several days.

Mrs. Evelyn Cairns of Springbrook Drive spent Thanksgiving weekend with her daughter Dolores and James Clements, and family in Adrian.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard W. Thayer of Grand River Avenue recently enjoyed a seven-day Caribbean cruise and on their return to Florida spent three days with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Allen and their little son Tim, were visited on Wilmarth over Thanksgiving by Mr. and Mrs. Milton Soper and Mrs. Soper's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Dean Scott, all of Geneva, N.Y.

Mrs. Allen's sister, Nanette of Fort Wayne, Ind., and her brother, Scott Soper of Rio Grande College in Ohio also were visitors along with Allen's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Clinton Allen Sr., and Art and Doug of Ann Arbor.

His sister and her husband, Dottie and Al Birkhead, came in from Adrian to be there as well. This was baby Tim's first big party with grandparents, aunts and uncles present.

Mr. and Mrs. John Martin and family of Saginaw drove to Farmington to pick up Mr. Martin's mother, Mrs. Bernice Martin of Valleyview, to drive her back to Saginaw for Thanksgiving. She spent two weeks there. Bernice has been a member of the Drop In Center since it was organized.

She has considerable eye trouble so has been ill during the past summer. Please drop her a card or note. She is a dear little mother and loves cards.

Please remember Mel Kennedy, also a very avid card player, who is still ill in St. Mary Hospital, Livonia. Get well, Mel, in time for Christmas celebration. We need you.

Capt. Margaret E. Schreiber, USAF, spent a happy Thanksgiving with her father, Paul R. Schreiber of Oakland Avenue, trying out many new recipes on him, such as honey nut chocolate cake and brandied turkey, which turned out great. Margaret also hosted a small informal birthday party for her father.

I must mention to mention that his gifts were unique, especially from his daughter - a state dried out, old cigar which he had left at the Leonards months ago. The usual chatter was enjoyed by all. (P.S. Keep your eyes open for that turkey wandering down Oakland).

Mr. and Mrs. John Hasten of Rockycreek, are new residents of Farmington. A housewarming was given in their honor Friday, Nov. 15.

The happiest surprise was the arrival of their son John Jr., who arrived from his Naval Air Base, Rockycreek, rang with joy and happiness.

Mrs. Tracy (Betty) Conroy is in St. Mary's Hospital, room 534, with a broken arm.

Slave Day Raises Funds

FARMINGTON

FARMINGTON
Mrs. Fred Samra, secretary of the Farmington Artists Club is the featured artist at the Farmington Public Library, 12 Mile branch.

The paintings will be on display in the reading room during regular library hours. The display is part of a regular series at the library.

"Painting started for me many years ago as a form of relaxation, and through the years has been a source of great satisfaction as well as frustration," she said.

"My ambition is to be able to teach the basic elements of creativity and aesthetics with emphasis on modern interpretations and expressions."

Mrs. Samra has studied at Madonna College for four years with Sister Angelina, professor of art. She has taught a summer class for young adults there.

At the present time, she is working toward an associate degree in art at Oakland Community College, where she is studying with Kephah Tazian.

The Range Riders 4-H Club, of Farmington will hold a fund-raising "slave day" Dec. 8-9 to raise money for the new club.

Members will be soliciting odd jobs, and expect to be paid "what the job is worth," according to Mrs. Elmer Plucky, 33337 Cloverdale.

Residents contacted are asked to participate, or people with jobs for the club members are asked to contact Mrs. Plucky.
