

CMU Students Exchange Vows

Central Michigan University students Diane Reddaway and John M. Appicelli were married recently in an afternoon ceremony in the First Presbyterian Church of Mt. Pleasant.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Reddaway of Pontiac and Mr. and Mrs. Nebell Appicelli of Barkley Avenue, Livonia, are the bridegroom's parents.

The Rev. John K. Osborn officiated. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white satin and lace gown and an elbow-length veil. She carried white roses and ivory in a cascade arrangement.

Four attendants wore empire dresses in pastel crepe and carried multi-color cascades of carnations. Cheryl Ferguson of Mt. Pleasant, maid of honor, was in yellow. Mary Solomon of Redford Township, the bridegroom's sister, wore peach color. Sherry Wolfe of Midland was in blue and Judy Green of Pontiac, cousin of the bride, wore green.

Paul Lucas of Livonia was best man. The groomsmen were Richard Reddaway of Lake Orion, brother of the bride, and Michael Appicelli of Mt. Pleasant, brother of the bridegroom. Brian Reddaway and David Appicelli, brothers of the bride and bridegroom, were ushers.

After a reception for 150 in the Isabelle County Sportsman's Club, the couple went to Toronto for their honeymoon. They are living in Mt. Pleasant.

Rites Are Ecumenical

Patricia Lee Frasure, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ross M. Frasure Sr. of Farmington Hills, became the bride of James Michael Biebuyck in a recent ecumenical service.

The ceremony took place in the Chapel of the Praying Hands at Mercy Center in Farmington Hills, with the Rev. Lawrence DuCharme and the Rev. Eric Hammar officiating.

A dinner reception in Mercy Center followed. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Norbert A. Biebuyck of New Baltimore.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, wore an empire gown of ivory tulle and a three-tier cathedral veil her mother designed.

Her jewelry included diamond earrings, gift of the bridegroom, and an antique ring that had belonged to her maternal grandmother. Her flowers were white roses, stephanotis and hyacinth, with six yellow roses.

Her six attendants wore dresses with gold velvet skirts and ivory lace bodices and carried wicker baskets of fall flowers.

Mrs. Thomas Lee of Plymouth was matron of honor and the bridesmaids were Mrs. Robert Sprague of Ypsilanti, Mrs. Gary Patter-son of Lansing, Mrs. Glen Bachman of Six Lakes, Mich., Nancy Belt of Columbus, cousin of the bride, and Judy Biebuyck, sister of the bridegroom. Assisting the bridegroom were his brother, David Biebuyck of Anchorville, as best man, groomsmen Ross Frasure II, brother of the bride, Gerald Wernick and Chris Cole of Marine City, and Robert Biebuyck and John Soper of New Baltimore. The ushers were Stanley Biebuyck, brother of the bridegroom, and Michael Schultz of Anchorville.

The couple went to Florida for their honeymoon and will live in Marine City. The new Mrs. Biebuyck is a graduate of North Farmington High School and Central Michigan University, where she affiliated with Sigma Sigma Sigma sorority, and teaches business at Holy Cross High School in Marine City.

Her husband served with the U.S. Army in Vietnam and graduated from Wayne State University school of mortuary science. He is associated with the Colonial Chapel funeral homes in St. Clair and Marine City.

Lunch Planned For Chanukah

Sisterhood of Beth Abraham-Hillel will have its Chanukah luncheon meeting Monday, Dec. 17, in the Nubatum Hall of the Synagogue Building, 505 W. Maple Rd., West Bloomfield.

Members are urged to bring a friend to lunch and enjoy Channel TV 2's "Bloopers Program." Proceeds will be used to replenish Sisterhood's kitchen equipment.

Arrangements have been made to have a baby sitter available at all meetings and social functions to enable mothers to attend. For further information contact the synagogue office, 505 W. Maple, West Bloomfield.

MR. AND MRS. STEVEN L. DANEN (Sue Leonard)

Sue Leonard Wed To Steven Danen

Sue Leonard became the bride of Steven L. Danen in a recent double-ring ceremony in Our Lady of Good Counsel Catholic Church, Plymouth.

The Rev. Lyle Danen, cousin of the bridegroom officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Leonard of Plymouth. Mr. and Mrs. Leo H. Danen of De Pere, Wis., are the bridegroom's parents.

Ivory sheer satin fashioned the bride's A-line gown. Venise lace trimmed the bodice and long, full sleeves, and a lace headpiece held her long veil. She carried a cascade bouquet with snowflake mums, mini-carnations and three red roses.

Jeanne Finlan of Milwaukee was maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Mrs. Valerie Cappozzo of Oconomowoc, Wis., and Beth Holland of Hillsdale.

They wore princess gowns of red cordless corduroy with pique collars and venise lace trim. Their flowers were red roses, pink carnations and purple statice.

Assisting the bridegroom were Al Bleser of Fond du Lac, Wis., as best men, and Biff Leonard and Dennis Danen, brothers of the bridegroom, as ushers.

The reception was held in Hillsdale Inn, Plymouth. The couple honeymooned in northern Michigan and will live in Appleton, Wis.
