

Nursery Still Has Openings

A few openings remain for the 1973 fall semester of St. David Nursery, licensed by the state and operated under auspices of St. David Episcopal Church, 27500 Marquette, Garden City.

Classes for three-year-olds meet Tuesdays and Thursdays from 9 to 11 a.m. and four-year-olds meet Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays at the same hour. Class size is limited to 20.

Activities this year have included a visit to an apple orchard, turkey farm and nature center tours and lunch with Santa Claus.

The school is headed by a former elementary school teacher with a master's degree in elementary education. Parents interested in enrolling their children may call the church.

Czech Services For Retardates Speaker's Topic

"Mental Retardation Services Behind the Iron Curtain" is the topic of a talk to be heard Tuesday, Dec. 18, by two local organizations interested in retardation.

Dr. Edward L. Ruman will address a combined meeting of the Plymouth Association for Retarded Children and the Northwest Communities Association for retarded children at 8 p.m. in the west ballroom of the Mercy College Conference Center, Outer Drive and Southfield, Detroit.

He will talk about the information he gathered recently about services for the retarded in Czechoslovakia, a project that won him the annual Rosemary Dybwad award this year.

The award is given "to encourage and stimulate an interchange of information among voluntary associations for mentally retarded citizens throughout the world."

The host groups will serve refreshments following his talk, and all interested persons are invited to hear him.

Gala Planned

The Xi Delta Eta exemplar chapter of Beta Sigma Phi sorority will hold its annual Christmas party Sunday, Dec. 16, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kolacz, 13224 Kerr, Southgate.

PAUL KELLOGG, state representative for the Inner Peace Movement, will conduct seminars on the movement Friday and Saturday, Dec. 14 and 15, at 8 p.m. on Orchard Ridge campus of Oakland Community College, north of 11 Mile between Farmington Road and Orchard Lake Road, Farmington Hills. The seminars are slated in Building A, room 212, and there is a $1.50 charge to defray expenses.

When temporary drowsiness slows you down

INCREASE MENTAL ALERTNESS!

Perform with greater efficiency
