

FJH Yule Concert Set

The Farmington Junior High music department will present its winter concert Thursday, Dec. 20, at 8 p.m.

The concert will feature the orchestra, conducted by Barbara Adams and the choir, also under her direction. Donald Ross will conduct the concert band, and he will combine efforts with Tom Sklut, student teacher, for the varsity and cadet bands.

The school is located on Thomas near Warner.

7 Graduate From EMU

highest rank. Troop 263 has more eagles than any other represented in the Clinton Valley Council last year. (Photo by Ralph Evert)

6 Eagles Are Named

FARMINGTON

Farmington's troop 263 elevated six Boy Scouts to the rank of Eagle recently, scouting's highest rank.

Named Eagles were John Crotty, 33033 Red Clover, whose project was cleaning up the debris in the OCC pond; Todd Schiller, 32300 Bonnett Hill, who helped Crotty;

Tim Adams, 30158 Fern Hill, built a display board of scouting insignia. Mike Neitzel, 32263 Hearthstone, in scouting for five years, built training aids for a class of handicapped children.

Dave Swan, 32444 Renford, worked at Detroit Baptist Manor as a volunteer. Jeff Robbins, 32393 Chesterbrook, worked on refinishing beams at Prince of Peace Church.

Board Shifts Meeting Time

FARMINGTON

The Farmington Board of Education has made two shifts in its meeting schedule for the month of January.

The meeting will be held Jan. 8 and 12 instead of Jan. 1 and 15.
