Scottish Ceremony Unites Mephams

The father and uncle of the bride shared an old Scottish wedding ceremony when Deborah Ann Northrop, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Gordon D. Northrop of Farmington, married Douglas Charles Mepham in Greenfield Village recently.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. Mepham of Allen Park.

Dr. Floyd E. Northrop of Spring Lake, Mich., read from the Ian McLaren ritual while the bride's father gave the actual vows in the double-ring service in Martha-Mary chapel.

The bride wore a chiffon gown with lace bodice and flowing sleeves and a short, bouffant veil that fell from a seed pearl Juliet cap. Her attendants were multicolored ruffled organza dresses.

Priscilla E. Northrop was maid of honor and Barbara J. Mepham was bridesmaid. Attending the bridegroom were Hilary Danilowicz of Wayne as best man, Timothy Northrop as groomsman and Paul Simon of Kalamazoo and Thomas Kivell of Norman, Okla., as ushers.

Following a carriage ride through the village, the couple greeted guests in a Lovett Hall reception, where Mrs. Kathy Kivell, sister of the bridegroom, was hostess and entertainment was furnished by harpist Onita Jackson Sanders. She also played for the wedding ceremony.

The newlyweds went to Niagara Falls and Toronto and then flew to Spain for a nine-day tour.

They will live on Barlow Lake near Middleville, Mich. Both are teachers in Hastings Junior High School.

The new Mrs. Mepham, a graduate of Farmington High School and Hope College, is an art instructor and her husband, who graduated from Western Michigan University, is special education teacher.

Sue Pearson Wed To Greg Kuhn

Livonians Sue Pearson and Greg Kuhn were united in marriage in a recent early evening ceremony in St. Scholastica Catholic Church in Detroit.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. John G. Pearson of Westbrook Drive and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Kuhn of Wayne Road.

The Rev. Arnold d'Achille officiated, and the bride's father gave her in marriage. She wore a white nylon silk colonial-style gown with a lace fashioning the yoke and deep skirt ruffle. A petal headpiece held her finger veil and she carried white and peach carnations and roses in her colonial bouquet.

Diane Ouellette of Livonia, the bride's sister, was matron of honor. She wore a peach voile dress with a petal headpiece and carried peach and white miniature carnations.

Flower girl Michelle Ouellette wore a peach dotted Swiss dress with lace trim. Bill Ouellette, the bride's brother-in-law, was best man. The guests were seated by Cullen Barringer of Livonia and Dean Palmer of Redford Township.

After a reception for 215 guests in the Mercy Center in Detroit, the couple left for a Fort Lauderdale honeymoon. They will live in Livonia.

Mrs. Kuhn is a 1968 graduate of Stevenson High School and employed by Michigan Bell Telephone Co. Her husband graduated from Benedictine High School in 1968 and works for Sears in the Livonia Mall.
