

Citizens For Life set rally Sunday

Mrs. William Jaeger, Farmington woman who lost her daughter Susan while on a camping trip in Montana last summer, will be one of the featured speakers when Michigan Citizens For Life hold a rally Sunday, Jan. 20.

The theme of the rally is "The Great American Tragedy," scheduled to be staged in Detroit's Kennedy Square from 2-3 p.m.

The date for the rally was chosen because it was just one year ago that the United States Supreme Court handed down its "Abortion on Demand" decision.

On the speaker's platform Mrs. Jaeger will be joined by state house speaker William Ryan (D-Det); William Cahalan, Wayne County prosecutor; and state representative David S. Homes (D-Detroit).

Diane E. Trombley, spokesman for Michigan Citizens For Life, said, "We hope to demonstrate that a majority of the people in this country were dismayed by last year's Supreme Court decision.

"We hope to show our determination to concentrate our efforts toward the passage of a human rights amendment which would protect and foster all life from conception until natural death."

In the 12 months since the Supreme Court decision in question, more than 1.3 million abortions have taken place in the United States.

On Tuesday, Jan. 22, Mrs. Jaeger will join anti-abortion leaders from Michigan, and members of Michigan Citizens For Life for a "National March For Life" around the Capitol in Washington, D.C.

Still time to register

Registration is still open at Northwest Branch YMCA, 25940 Grand River, for a full winter schedule of activities for men, women and youth, which will start the week of Jan. 21.

The nursery service is available for mothers with small children on Mondays when the Y offers First Aid classes from 1-3 p.m.; powderpuff mechanics from 1-3 p.m. and human potential from 9-10:30 a.m.
