

Michael Hall
to lecture

FARMINGTON — Farmington area art students will be exposed to some exciting new ideas when Michael Hall, head of Cranbrook's sculpture department, lectures at the Farmington Community Center Jan. 31, at 8 p.m.

A frequent prize winner, Hall will describe the new trend toward a more massive, yet natural art form.

He, with a handful of others across the nation, has abandoned so-called coffee table art and dainty pedestal figures for a larger mode of expression.

The lecture will be illustrated with slides.

10,000 expected
at band festival

FARMINGTON — Farmington students and their parents are getting it all together — both musically and physically — for the annual district solo and band ensemble festival that will be held here on Saturday, Feb. 2 and again on Feb. 9.

Co-hosting the event, sponsored by the Michigan School Band and Orchestra Association, (region four) will be Harrison High School and Dunckel Junior High School.

The festival is expected to attract 10,000 students and their parents and is a "first" for the Farmington district, according to Paul Barber, head of Harrison's music department. Barber is one of three Farmington music instructors who are coordinating the huge event. The others are Larry Dettler and Don Ross.

Cynthia Stuart
on dean's list

FARMINGTON — Cynthia Jane Stuart of 29925 Beacontree Rd., Farmington, has been named to the dean's list for the fall quarter at Miami University, Oxford, Ohio.

To qualify for the honor, a student must earn at least a 3.5 grade point average from a possible four points.

Approximately 100 secondary schools in the Oakland-Macomb region will participate. Performances will start at 8 a.m. and continue until 5 p.m. both days.

Both Harrison and Dunckel facilities will be used, Barber said. Shuttle bus service will be provided to transport the young musicians the mile distance on 12 Mile Road between the two schools.

First and second place medals will be awarded. At the high school level only, first place medalists will have a chance to meet in state — wide competition in Flint on March 23.

Barber expects about 4,500 junior high students to take part in 2,200 performances and about 4,000 senior high musicians in about 2,000 performances.

Thirty pianos have been rented for the event, he continued, and "instant" instrument repair service has been arranged.

The committee also plans to use at least 350 students as "runners" and to help out as needed.

While Barber and his committee are scrambling to set up the performance schedule and arrange accommodations for the judges, a parent committee made up primarily of Harrison Band Boosters has been mobilized to take care of feeding the musical troops.

Hospitality teams will be based in Harrison's cafeteria in the lower level in four separate areas to provide food and beverages. In addition, a snack bar will also be set up the auxiliary gym on the first level.

Mrs. Marie Kaufman, banquet chairman for the Boosters, heads up the parent hospitality committee. Her co-chairmen are Mrs. Alice Toth and Mrs. Eleanor Potacki. Committee members are Mrs. Shirley Luttman, Mrs. Charma Polkinghorne, Mrs. Joline Markovich, Mrs. Nancy Kourtjian, Mrs. Barbara Kubitskey and Mrs. Marilyn Welborn.

What have they ordered for the students to munch on? Besides a considerable amount of hot dogs and hamburgers, the mothers have 100 dozen doughnuts on order, at least 1,000 candy bars, 170 dozen ice cream sandwiches and 45 tanks of pop.

And who'll be doing the cleanup? "Oh, we'll all pitch in — we're so proud to have the festival here," said one involved mother.
