Franklin almost returned to its old habit of basketball giveaway.

With seven minutes remaining, the Patriots were sitting on a comfortable lead.

In a matter of five minutes the Rockets were within one at $2:51.

But the Glenn spark rained out of fuel and Franklin's second half rally failed to win 61-55 and remain in contention for the Northwest top spot with Oak Park at 5-1.

For Franklin it was winning number nine against three losses, while Glenn added its fourth loss in 15 outings.

With 1:50 left in the opening quarter, two free throws by Brian Kaluzny gave Glenn a 17-10 lead. Kevin Kavanagh then picked up a hot hand from Franklin and the Patriots sprinted to an 18-14 lead.

The Glenn break tied the game at 19-19.

The second on a basket by Kaluzny and free throws by Jeff Brittain.

That's when the Patriots caught fire and connected on four straight baskets from the foot court to score 27 points in six minutes.

utes to grab a 42-26 lead. Jamie Knapp was the sparkplug in the Parbitt attack with 10 of his 14 points.

The third quarter saw both teams cool off but Glenn remained tormented by the defense while Franklin's Kaseta, the area's No. 1 scorer, was on the bench nursing four fouls.

Glenn got hot from the line in the fourth quarter. He made his first three free throws and good charity tosses and Kaseta popped in four straight and the lead was sliced to 50-42.

After Tim Neuman hit a 3-point jumper for Franklin, Jimmy Khoulmi hit five straight 3-pointers for Glenn. Kaluzny added a field goal and Henry Esbaugh popped in a bucket to make it 52-51 with 2:13 remaining.

Franklin finally regained its poise. Kaseta and Ke Fry hit and Glenn never closed the three-point gap.

Franklin's lead was 56-51 for 56 per cent from the floor and Glenn 20 of 51 for 39 per cent. Rebounding saw Franklin in a 37-19 winnits. Kaseta and Fry were 10-12 in the paint. Defense was 10-23. Offense was 10-23.

key," commented Franklin Coach Bob Visser. "We have to slow things down after Karseta was out with four fouls." We stopped taking the ball to the basket and began overplaying. We were just hurting ourselves.

"But I never felt at any stage that we were going to lose this one," he added. "Now Oak Park has to come at us after playing Glenn this week."
