

First Girl Scout cookie sales on

The Huron Valley Girl Scouts are out to burn a mortgage when they begin taking orders in the 1974 Girl Scout cookie sale. Goal for the drive is the highest in history, $260,000 in gross sales, and if successful, a part of the profits will make the last payment on Camp Linden, the council's 400-acre residential and troop camp in Livingston County.

Scouts from Huron-Valley Council will take orders between Feb. 8 - 17 for a March delivery. They offer flavors of lemon creme, peanut butter savannahs, chocolate and vanilla cremes, scot teas and thin mints (the last two flavors are Kosher).

The Southern Oakland girl scouts will be taking orders March 2 - 8 for a May delivery and they will offer assorted cremes, shorties, chocolate chip and nut, mint, and peanut butter sandies.

Scouts of Metropolitan Detroit will sell a variety of boxes at supermarkets, malls and local stores from March 8 - 17.

If the scouts reach their goal, profits from the sale, in addition to paying off the camp mortgage, will also pay one-third of the costs of troop camping and one-half that of all resident camping. Cookie money also funds camp scholarships for over 100 girls from each of the three councils each year.

Area chairmen from the Huron Valley Council, who are leading off the sale, in Observerland, are Carol Green and Mrs. Dale Waybrant of Westland, and Doris Rorabacher of Plymouth.

Rebecca Harnden bride

Rebecca Harnden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Harnden of Brentwood Avenue, Livonia, became the bride of Ronald Dozier in a recent early evening ceremony in the First Presbyterian Church of Northville.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Dozier of Panama City, Fla.

Officiating for the rites was the Rev. Lloyd G. Brasure and the bride was given in marriage by her father.

She wore a full-skirted Bianchi gown trimmed with hand embroidery and roses fashioned of pale pink sequins. A matching headpiece held her madonna veil and her bouquet was of silk roses, orchids, baby's breath, lilies and ivy.

Her attendants wore peasant-style dresses of ivory lutesong with emerald green velvet vests and Juliet caps. They carried baskets of dried and silk flowers in shades of emerald green and raspberry pink.

Elizabeth Reddekopp of Detroit was matron of honor and the bridesmaids were Joanne Fell of Farmington Hills, Janet Peterson of Dearborn Heights and Alice Hoch of Kalamazoo.

The bridegroom's attendants included Gregory Harnden of Livonia, brother of the bride, as best man, and John Pavel of Livonia, Jason Hammond of Detroit and Richard Smith of Detroit as groomsmen.

Michelle and Michael Perry of Sterling Heights, cousins of the bride, were junior bridesmaid and junior groomsmen, and the flower girl and ring bearer were Susan and Todd DeYoung of Kokomo, Ind.

The reception for 200 was held in Glen Oaks Country Club, Farmington Hills.

The couple will live in Southfield. The new Mrs. Dozier studied at Madonna College, Mercy College of Detroit and Schoolcraft College and is employed by Cunningham Drugs in Westland. Her husband works for Cadillac Motors in Livonia.
