	W L PF PA 1 - CHURCHILL	are beginning to sense that there's a lot more behind Plymouth Salem's 13-2 record than the Rocks' vaunted height and an of- fense which shows three men averaging double figures. Pretty much overlooked has been Plymouth's team defense which showed itself	coming before 6-6 sophomore Jim Ellinghausen became a starter. The youngster's feather scoring touch has overshadowed what he has added to the club defen- sively, but the book puts it in vivid figures. Plymouth's 77-point ex- plosion against Belleville,	Eight second period points from Agardy helped make it 36:23 by halftime, and the gi- ant tossed in 10 more in the third stanza as the Rocks boosted their lead to 56:37 at the three-quarter pole. Coach Fred Thomani cleared his 14-man bench in the final quarter as the Rocks added	being poked in the kisser himself by a player during a locker room altercation.
