

Prosecutor Patterson helps solve people's problems

EDITOR: Today I wish to write to the people, especially the people of Farmington.

In this age of mistrust and dissolution, to have the privilege to contact someone like L. Brooks Patterson, prosecuting attorney of Oakland County, I heard Mr. Patterson spoke on television. I contacted him by phone; he answered promptly, to say if I could not get him, to get in contact with his secretary. This I did, explaining the situation to her as also Mr. Patterson had.

A 'slob' strikes the neighborhood

EDITOR: We would like to thank the inconsiderate slob who chose to dump his trash and garbage at the corner of Barlow and Orchard Lake roads. The people on Barlow and Greening really enjoy cleaning up after you, not to mention the joy of seeing your trash sit there until spring cleanup.

My problem was red tape. Shifted to one call and place to another, getting absolutely nowhere.

CONGRATULATIONS on merger
EDITOR: The Greater Detroit Council of Pioneer Women wishes you great success in your new reorganization plan.

PASSBOOK CRITIC UNFAIR
EDITOR: The disappointed writer about Metro Passbook did not mention what things she could not obtain.

Fathers ignored in school story

EDITOR: This is in regard to the Jan. 30 issue of the Observer Life section, page 1. Several mothers were concerned about sex discrimination on the part of their daughters and shop classes.

There's something about those two articles that no one noticed. Though the words "boys" and "girls" were used many times, the word "mother" or "mothers" were used eight times; "daughters" six times.

But "father" and "son" were never used. Only "husband" was used once. This tells us a lot. This tells us that while "father" is at work, not really worrying that his "son" isn't getting his fair share of home ec

A driver gives thanks
EDITOR: Many thanks to Captain Vern Rorabacher, Sgt. Larry Longwish and Firefighters Frank Chakrabarty and Jim Davison of the Canton Township fire department for helping me get from Canton to West Bloomfield with only half a car key. Further thanks to Mr. and Mrs. John Cole of Plymouth who offered to drive me home — a mere 40 miles there and back on that cold, snowy night.

SOME FOLKS LIKE RADIO
EDITOR: Re your editorial page of Jan. 9, Tim Richard asked, "Who wants a radio revival?" Perhaps he should ask the person who is blind, people who live beyond TV reception, long distance truck drivers or someone who has to work but can listen to the radio but can't watch it.
