Soroptimists announce award winners Feb. 28

Ten seniors from five Farmington area high schools are among those competing for the 1974 Farmington Soroptimist youth citizenship award.

The winner will be announced at a dessert reception Thursday, Feb. 28, at 8 p.m. in the Farmington Community Center.

Previously the Soroptimist award was announced earlier and the winner honored at a dinner to which other contestants were invited.

The students competing are from three Farmington schools, Farmington High, North Farmington and Harrison, as well as Our Lady of Mercy and Novi High School.

They are Elizabeth Abowd, Joan Giacomini, Lisa Clarke, Janen Ellis, Kathryn Hess, Doug Kim, Michelle Kroutier, Sean O'Brien, Michael Spence and Pauli Tuck.

First, second and third place winners will receive $150, $100 and $50 respectively. The first place winner will have the opportunity to compete in the regional competition for $1,250 and in the national for $1,500.

The students must possess such qualities as cooperativeness, courtesy, loyalty, truthfulness, punctuality, self control, responsibility, dignity, sincerity and integrity.

He must also be aware of the contributions he made in the home, community and world.

Mardi Gras gala to aid WSU child care center

The child care center on the Wayne State University campus will benefit from a Mardi Gras celebration planned Saturday, Feb. 23, by Women of Wayne alumnae.

The party is scheduled from 8:30 p.m. to 1 a.m. in the Detroit Federation of Musicians hall, 19161 Schaefer, near Seven Mile, in Detroit.

Entertainment will include Las Vegas games and an array of prizes. Refreshments will be available.

Tickets are $3.50 and may be purchased at the door or reserved by calling Alumni House on the WSU campus.

Women of Wayne, affiliated with the WSU Alumni Association, established the center in 1969 to provide quality care for children of students while their parents attend classes. It was one of the first such centers to be established on a university campus.

Some 500 families have used the center since its opening. Applications are being accepted for the spring quarter.

'Alternatives In Education' classes open

The Parents Association for Alternatives in Education, which has chapters in Plymouth, Livonia and Northville, has opened its after-school program. All classes are held at St. John Episcopal Church on Sheldon Rd., in Plymouth from 3:30-5 p.m.

The classes are designed to offer a complete academic program, and not simply "enrichment." They are taught by certified teachers. The fee is $30 per month, plus a $5 registration charge per class.

Enrollment inquiries are being taken by Elizabeth Murner, 9835 Arden, Livonia.

Sperry speaks to SAR group

Canon William B. Sperry, former rector of Christ Church in Detroit, will address the Detroit chapter of the Sons of the American Revolution Saturday, Feb. 23, following a noon luncheon in the Dearborn Inn.

Sperry's subject will be "The Young George Washington."

The Sons of the American Revolution consists of state societies in the 50 states, France and Switzerland. There are 313 local chapters in cities throughout the country.

Detroit attorney Marion H. Cramer is president general of the Detroit chapter. General MacDonald is president.

Men over 18 years of age whose ancestors fought in the Revolutionary War may be considered for membership.
