A Pleasant Meeting.

The Ladies' Literary club held the last meeting of the year at the home of Mrs. LaVerna Adams Wednesday afternoon, June 2. This day is known as President's Day and is more social than literary. Mrs. Gertrude Renshaw of Detroit, and Mrs. Ella Turner of Northville, honorary members of the club, were present.

The entertainment and banquet committee were the social members—Mesdames Edna Dohany, Grace Miller, Alice Way and Della Payne—and the ladies and their guests were entertained right royally. The following program was much enjoyed:

Piano Solo—Mrs. Edna Dohany
Reading—Mrs. Inda Osmus
Duet—Mesdames Wilber and Lee
Reading—Mrs. Josephine McGee
Solo—Mrs. Anna Cook
Reading—Mrs. Edna Dohany
The ladies were each presented by Mrs. Edna Dohany with a pretty hand-painted booklet which contained the program, including a shirt waist and musical contest, which was enjoyed after the program.

The ladies were then invited to the dining room where a bountiful banquet was spread and which they enjoyed the most of all, and after congratulating and thanking their hostess, Mrs. Adams, and social committee, they bade each other good-bye, all feeling that the past year had been a pleasant one.

Township Reports Must Be Published.

The legislature has passed a new law which provides that township treasurers, highway commissioners and other township officers must publish financial statements in newspapers.

When the bill was under discussion it was brought out that in one township of the state only one copy of the treasurer's report was made and that was tacked up on the back of a shed face downward so no one could read it. Publishing these reports in newspapers will let the taxpayers know what their servants have done with their money.

The Telephone Girl.

The telephone girl sits still in her chair and listens to voices from everywhere. She hears all the gossip, she hears all the news; knows who is happy and who has the blues; she knows all our sorrows, she knows all our joys, she knows every girl who is stuck on the boys; she knows of our troubles, she knows of our strife, she knows every man who is mean to his wife; she knows every time we are out with the boys, she hears the excuses each fellow employs; she knows every woman who has a dark past, and all of the men who are inclined to be fast; in fact there's a secret 'neath each little curl of that quiet demure looking telephone girl. If the telephone girl would tell all that she knows it would turn all our friends into bitterest foes; she would sow a small wind that would soon be a gale, engulf us in trouble and land us in jail; she could let go a story, which gaining in force, would cause half our wives to sue for divorce; she could get all the churches mixed up in a fight and turn all our days into sorrowing night; in fact, she could keep the whole town in a stew, if she'd tell a tenth part of the things that she knew. Now doesn't it make your head in a whirl when you think what you owe the telephone girl?—Ex.

Bad Accident.

As Lewis Barton, who is in the employ of Carl Ely was driving several cows across the electric line near Base Line curve, south of here, a car struck one of them throwing it against Mr. Barton. The cow was killed and Mr. Barton was badly injured. The car was running at a high rate of speed and Mr. Barton was unable to keep the cows from going across the track in front of the car. Mr. Barton is suffering from concussion of the brain and a trained nurse is in attendance.

Ten Bills Were Vetoed.

When the final adjournment of the state legislature took place last week, and the formal closing ceremonies of both the lower and upper house had been completed, ten bills passed by the legislature were left by the wayside, this number not meeting Gov. Warner's approval for one reason or another.

The time limit upon which Gov. Warner had to read over the bills was to short for him to give some of the bills the scrutiny that he desired and to facilitate matters he called upon his clerical force and cabinet officers to go into some of the bills before he passed upon them finally. As far as possible Gov. Warner gave the bills his careful scrutiny before he signed them.

Fire at Northville.

A disastrous fire broke out in the dry goods store of Satovsky & Son at Northville Thursday morning about 4:30 o'clock. The flames had gained such headway before being discovered that most of the stock was destroyed. The fire was confined to the first floor and basement of the building, which is owned by T. G. Richardson of that place.
