DETAILED PLAN FOR PRACTICAL FARM BUILDING

Complete Design Given for Erection of Structure that Will Accommodate Horses, Cattle, Feed and Other Accessories.

Barn for Mixed Farming.

The farmer who can so adjust his work that he may dispense with the help of one man is lucky indeed, but many a farmer has done so by simply changing his system of feeding and caring for the stock; also by so disposing of the grain and hay that instead of hauling many tons of it to market it is fed on the farm, and the beef, pork, butter, cheese, etc., sold. This allows the farmer to restore to the ground at least a part of the fertility in the shape of manure.

The barn plan shown herewith in the two illustrations, the ground plan and the perspective view, is so arranged that one man may feed and care for the stock in a short time. As shown on the floor plan, the barn will accommodate 14 cows, 10 horses, 100 head of calves, 100 head of pigs, and 100 head of chickens. The installation of manure carriers and hay fork is very easy, and these will soon pay for themselves in the labor saved. A feature of the barn not to be overlooked is the arrangement of the feed room and silo. The four-foot chute extends the entire length of the silo, and has small windows for light, a tight door below separating same from the feed room to keep out dust and odors. The silage is dropped down this chute, and from there shoveled to the mixing boxes—one for the cows and one for the horses. There are two bins in the feed room and two more may be located on the floor above and connected by small spouts for drawing off the grain. These spouts may be located directly over the mixing boxes. All hay is supposed to be fed from above, one bay chute being provided for each two stalls.

The milk room being located as it is, the milk may be taken to it at once. In this room should be located a separator, also plenty of clean water; if possible running water should be provided. The shop is a very necessary room, and it will have many small repair tools. In it may be stored the tools and equipment of the horse barn. The harness room is located in the center, which makes it handy to all parts of the same. The two box stalls provide room for both male animals as well as sick and aging ones.

The hay bay is supposed to be open clear to the roof; however, some farmers may wish to arrange this space different. The partition separating the rows from the center section is boarded or slatted up tight, excepting the calf pen, to separate the rows from any odors, dust or dirt from the other animals. The box stalls, however, in both the cow and horse barn are so constructed that the inmates may have a good view of the other animals. They like company.

They have become so handy, and the driver as well, that they do lots of small jobs from the pile where it is sawed, and split to the house sheds, carrying feed to the chicken houses, gathering leaves to put in the pig pens and lots

HE KNEW HOW TO PICK THEM.

Tammany Man's Double-Barreled Compliment Did Away with Thought of Hostilities.

The orchestra was playing loudly in one of the restaurants in Denver, Col., during the Democratic national convention, and the diners were talking loudly so they might hear and be heard. At one table sat a beautiful woman and her escort and at the next table a number of Tammany men. Suddenly the orchestra stopped, bling! and a Tammany man's voice rang out: "By George, that's a good looking woman! I'd like to meet her." The man at the next table, who was with the lady came over, tapped the Tammany man on the shoulder and said frigidly: "Sir, that lady is my wife." "Shake," said the Tammany man: "I am glad to meet you. You certainly are a good picker." And hostilities were averted.—Saturday Evening Post.

SKIN ROUGH AS BARK.

Baby Boy Had Intense Itching Humors—Scratched Till Bleeding Run.

Found a Cure in Cuticura.

"Our son, two years old, was afflicted with a rash. After he suffered with the trouble several weeks I took him to the doctor but it got worse. The rash ran together and became large blisters. The little fellow didn't want to do anything but scratch, and we had to wrap his hands up to keep him from tearing the flesh open till the blood would run. The itching was intense. The skin on his back became hard and rough like the bark of a tree. He suffered intensely for about three months. But I found a remedy in Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment. The rash was almost magical. That was more than two years ago and there has not been the slightest symptom of it since he was cured. J. W. Lauck, Yonon, Ohs., Aug. 28 and Sept. 17, 1908." ## Facts About the Texas Gulf Coast From One Who Knows

In a recent letter to the President of the St. Louis, Brownsville & Mexico R. R., Robert H. Kern, Esq., 923 Missouri Trust Building, St. Louis, writes:

"Mr. Randolph has shown me your letter in which reference is made to my farming in Missouri. Presuming that you would like to know a little of my success in that line, I will say that I have been actively farming under my own supervision for seven years, 2,000 acres of fine farming land in Mason County, Mo. You may judge of the quality of the land when I tell you that I have in favorable seasons raised 75 bushels of corn to the acre, 30 bushels of wheat and 2 tons of hay. I have also studied farming conditions in the high priced lands of Illinois and Iowa. My own experience and this observation leads me to believe that if the best farms in any of these States for any five years average 50 bushels of corn to the acre, and that the farmer realizes therefrom $20 or $25 an acre, he is doing the best possible, and out of this expense, etc., of raising crops must be deducted. "A year ago I went to the lower Rio Grande Valley in the Gulf Coast Country of Texas and spent some time studying farming conditions there; I found my 20 years' experience on a farm in Bourbon Co., Ky., and my long experience in Missouri of great service. So much impressed was I with the vast superiority of farming in the Brownsville, Texas, region, that I bought 160 acres of land near Santa Maria, Texas, and put my son (a college boy) in charge. The result of practically a year is far better than I anticipated. He cut alfalfa down in January, 1908, 3 times, and realized therefrom 3 tons to the acre, worth $21.50 a ton at Mercedes, Texas, in February. He is now shipping cabbage planted in December, realizing between $200 and $300 an acre, and writes me that from the cabbage, cucumber, melon and bean crop of 40 acres, he will realize over $7,000. He has a fine fig orchard of over 7,000 trees set out in February, 1907, which raised from 10 acres in July and August, 1908, over $100 worth of figs and the entire crop this year should realize over $150 per acre. Orange trees set out two years ago, then two years old, are bearing now. One old lemon tree has borne over 2,000 fine lemons since July, and bananas are growing all the time. In my roamings in Europe and America I've never seen a country nor a climate that compares with it."

Many others are making similar successes. Building fortunes. The same opportunities are offered you. Write today for full information, and set of colored post cards of Texas Gulf Coast scenes. Free on request.
