North handsmen win state honors

North Farmington High School's band won honors at the Michigan School Band and Orchestra Association annual State Solo and Ensemble Festival at Perendale High School on March 23.

Winner of a Proficiency III rating (the highest that can be received) was Ron Kendall for his trombone playing.

Proficiency II winners were Cindy Berry, clarinet; Linda Ferriss, clarinet and Robin Ryan, flute. Proficiency I winners were Tom Benesh, trumpet; Tim Dot, piano; Mike Kendall, baritone; Dwight Peterson, piano; Nancy Stamp, flute; Rick Wallace, piano and horn.

Cindy Leistikow and Archie Black received first division ratings for their clarinet duet and Sue Merritt received a first division rating on her ninth grade solo.

Troop 110 travels

Boy Scout troop 110 of Farmington recently returned from a unique experience in scouting. The boys went on a weekend trip to Toronto, Canada, to visit the Science Center there.

Wilson wins honor

James Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Wilson, 28735 Summerwood, Farmington Hills, has been named as a James B. Angell Scholar at the recent honors convocation at the University of Michigan.

SMASHING!

For as little as $30 (or as much as $330), you can have season tickets to the new game in town—the Detroit Loves and World Team Tennis.

There's going to be exciting professional tennis action between Detroit's Loves starring Rosemary Casale, Kerry Harris, Phil Dent and Allan Stone, and other stars like Billie Jean King, John Newcombe, Jimmy Connors, Ken Rosewall, Evonne Goolagong and Kerry Melville.

The smashing takes place beginning Thursday, May 9 against Toronto at Cobo Arena. And you don't want to miss a point. Reserve season tickets in the balcony ($30), mezzanine ($80), arena ($100), loge ($120), centre court ($140), or the exclusive and zone Marquee Club ($330).

World Team Tennis will be exciting. A 16-team league, 44-match schedule with 22 at home from May through August, divisional champions, statistics and playoffs.

Tickets may be obtained at the Cobo Arena ticket office or through J. L. Hudson's or Grinnell's ticket outlets.
