Good times delivered

The National Association of Postal Supervisors delivered good times to nearly 200 postmasters and postal supervisors gathered for a dinner dance Saturday night at the Metropolitan Club, Warren. Birmingham postmaster Donald Ashton and Mrs. Ashton (right) and Birmingham superintendent of collection and delivery Donald James and Mrs. James (left) were among the postal employees from Birmingham, Bloomfield Hills, West Bloomfield, Troy, Farmington, Southfield, Lathrup Village, Pontiac and Royal Oak who attended the dinner dance sponsored by the National Association of Postal Supervisors. Coffee to include springerli cookies

Members of the Oakland University Woman's Club are busy preparing pastries for the group's Fifth International Scholarship Coffee from 9:30 a.m.-1 p.m. Friday at Meadow Brook Hall. The coffee will feature a variety of around-the-world pastries, including springerli cookies, provided by Mrs. Phyllis Marshall of Rochester.

SPRINGERLI COOKIES

4 beaten eggs
2 cups sugar
4 drops anise oil
4 1/2 cups cake flour

Beat whole eggs until thick. Gradually add sugar, beating well between each addition until all is combined. Then beat well for about 15 minutes.

Add anise oil and blend. Lightly fold in flour. Roll out dough about one-half inch thick. Flour the springerli mold and firmly press it into the dough. Remove mold and cut the cookies along the line of the imprint. Place on a greased cookie sheet.

Flour the mold every time. Let cookies stand overnight in a cool place to dry. In the morning place in a moderate oven (375 degrees) to set shape and reduce heat to 300 degrees immediately.

In 15 minutes the cookies should be light in color and look iced. For best flavor keep cookies in a tight can two weeks before using.
