West led the queen of diamonds.

After opening one notrump, his partner decided to place the contract in spades with his unbalanced hand. His heart call was a transfer bid requiring partner to bid spades. East interferred but South bid anyway. After cue bids in diamond and hearts, North had a small problem. He did not know much about his partner's spades. It seemed likely partner had the ace of clubs or good spades. He

THE PLAY was routine, but the spade division made the correct has less than fifty percent chance of success. The best play requires a lead to the king and a finesse against the jack.

Bryan won the diamond ace and entered dummy with the heart king to lead trump. The ace won, and declarer regained the lead to play the spade king and expose the singleton trump. The finesse of the ten picks up West's trumps.

One St. Charles Kitchen Idea Book is worth 1000 words, and $200

We'd like to give you one

Frankly, words just can't describe all the terrific new ideas you'll find in the St. Charles Kitchen idea Book.

The pictures help. More than 120 glorious full-color pictures, along with information about cabinet styles, color and texture combinations, and wall-towall layout suggestions.

We normally ask and get $2.00 for the book; and it's well worth it. In your case, all we sak is that you stop in and say hello. It's worth it!
