The series will continue Saturday with the topic "Gof's Strange Signs" and film "Last Journey to Jerusalen."

The concepts and goals of the founding families were the formation of a reform temple blending freedom of pulpit and pew. Membership was limited to 300 families to maintain close communication and family participation.

The goals also included taking strong stands on community projects and social action programs, adult education and a relevant religious school program to teach youth their responsibilities as Jews along with their heritage.

The congregation was formed eight years ago with seven families and meetings rotated in the homes of the members.

The concepts and goals of the founding families were the formation of a reform temple blending discount of the members.

Temple Kol Ami is unique for several reasons. There is no sister-hood or brotherhood as responsi-bilities are shared equally by men and women.

The youth group, composed of about 30 young people of high school age, has won several major awards for urban projects during the past three years.

Jews along with their heritage.

WITHIN A FEW months the original seven families had grown goods for the needy. This summer to 35 (and to date to 195) and began the sharing space with the Birming-Michigan State Temple Youth.

Prayers note anniversary

On the 26th anniversary Friday of the founding of the State of Israel, the congregation of Temple Kol Ami will join Jewish people around the world in prayer.

There will be special prayers and readings in honor of the ob-servance. Rabbi Ernst Conrad, spiritual leader of Temple Kol Ami, will use the occasion to offer impressions of the land and people of Israel, gained during a recent visit.

Services will begin at 8:30 p.m. in the pavilion of the Birmingham Unitarian Church, Lone Pine and Woodward, Bloomfield Hills.

A 'visitation' or 'calling hours' during a funeral permit family and friends to gather in the presence of the viewable body to express their feelings about the deceased. When a survivor is by himself, he is alone with his grief. When grief is shared, it contributes most to the mental health of the bereaved.
