

Police officer murdered; pre-trial set for Monday

By MARCIA ABRAMSON
Troy Police Ptl. Martin Chivas, 23, was shot and killed early Monday while investigating a suspected breaking and entering at the I-75 and Rochester Road Texaco station.

Twelve hours after Chivas was pronounced dead, two escaped convicts were charged with his slaying and arraigned in Troy Municipal Court.
Joseph Molinare, 29, and Gordon Stockenauer, 26, were captured outside Flint at 8 a.m. Monday and returned to Troy.
Police said Chivas was at least the second person to die in three days of terror that began Sunday in Marquette. Molinare and Stockenauer escaped from a minimum security Marquette prison late Friday.

A WOMAN hostage taken by the pair Saturday was killed Sunday as she tried to escape in Wisconsin. Later Sunday, a Milwaukee gas station attendant was shot and killed.
Warrants have been issued for Molinare and Stockenauer in the death of the hostage, Charlene Beaudin, a Marquette waitress.
Police are investigating the pair's possible involvement in the Milwaukee shooting.

Molinare and Stockenauer stood mute at their arraignment. Pleas of innocent were entered for both by Troy Municipal Judge Wilbur Bollinger.
Molinare and Stockenauer declined to enter pleas until they could confer with court-appointed attorneys.

TROY POLICE CPL. Thomas Morris told Bollinger both men confessed to their parts in the Troy slaying. Molinare fired the two rifle shots that killed Chivas, Morris said.

Judge Bollinger ordered both men held without bond in the Oakland County jail. A pre-trial examination will be held at 9 a.m. Monday before Judge Bollinger.

At the arraignment, Morris chronicled how Molinare and Stockenauer left a trail of terror from Marquette through Oskosh and Milwaukee, Wisconsin; Troy, Madison Heights, Warren, Southfield, and finally, Flint.

The pair escaped late Friday from the Marquette state prison. Both were serving sentences for felonious assault. Molinare had been sentenced to one-to-three years; Stockenauer, to two-and-a-half-to-four years.

TWO OTHER convicts were reported escaped. One has been recaptured, prison authorities said.

Molinare and Stockenauer waited overnight in a wooded area, Morris said, then stole rifles and went to a restaurant where they abducted Mrs. Beaudin and stole her car.

When that vehicle broke down near Carney, 80 miles south of Marquette, the pair are reported to have captured William Klingensmaier, the escapees thought they would find a plant waiting at an airstrip outside Oshkosh.

They found no plane, and instead, let the two hostages go. As the convicts drove away, Morris recounted, Molinare fired six or seven shots, killing Mrs. Beaudin. Klingensmaier escaped unharmed.

MORRIS SAID Molinare and Stockenauer then headed for Detroit, via Milwaukee and Chicago. A suburban Milwaukee service station attendant was shot and killed at about 6:50 a.m. Sunday, and the station was robbed.

Molinare and Stockenauer were not familiar with the Detroit area, Morris said, and ended up in Troy, where they were attempting to steal gasoline when Officer Chivas passed by on patrol at 2:54 a.m.

Noticing lights in the closed station, Chivas called in that he would investigate. His last words were, "I'll be out with a suspect at the I-75 Texaco station... he just ducked down."

By the time a second patrol car arrived, Chivas had been shot and the suspects were gone. Chivas was transported to William Beaumont Hospital in Royal Oak, where he was pronounced dead at 3:40 a.m.

MEANWHILE, MORRIS said, Molinare and Stockenauer went to Denny's Restaurant at Twelve Mile and Stephenson, where they attempted to take another hostage and steal a car. The intended victim screamed, and a patron came to her rescue. "Some shooting" broke out, Morris said.

The escapees fled to Warren. At about 5 a.m., they convinced Rick Inatome, 20, to let them into his family's home. Inatome said he thought friends were knocking at the door.

In Southfield, at Twelve Mile and Telegraph, Molinare and Stockenauer left Inatome, who went to Southfield police.

Flint police were alerted because authorities expected Molinare might try to return to the city he lived in before his conviction.

The Gremlin was spotted at about 7:30 a.m. and surrounded. Molinare and Stockenauer fled the car and were captured nearby.
