Cranbrook bows, Lahser guns on

By GEORGE PAWLUS

A bad handoff in the mile relay sent the Bloomfield Hills Cranbrook Cranes down to defeat against defending Class B state champ Ecorse at Cranbrook Wednesday. Ecorse's 66-57 win was decided on the last two relays, both of which it won. The Cranes needed to win just one and had a good chance in the mile relay but the bad handoff going into the anchor leg gave Vince Guinn too big of a margin to make up.
Cranbrook now sports a 7-4 mark.

Falcons fly, Barons fall

By ANITA CRONE

Purportedly in honor of Birming-ham Seaholm's visit, the softball field at Birmingham Groves was mowed Wednesday.

But the hospitality of Coach Audrey Cox's Falcons ended there as they handily dispatched their visitors, 12-5.

Sue Hameister started on the mound for Groves. She fanned seven of Coach Sharon Watson's Maples before being relieved by Bonnie Beresford in the sixth inning.

Although Seaholm pitcher Beth Maxwell showed steady control, she got little help from her teammates who allowed the Falcons to have a field day during the first two innings.

GROVES' BATS steamed through the first inning, as the entire team came to the plate. The onslaught peaked when Falcon catcher Sally Burger slashed a lead-off homerun in the second inning.

The Maples seemed to regain control of their fielding when Kathy Frye, still suffering from a fractured arm, entered the tame in the third in-ning.

But, by then, it was too late as Groves commanded at 113 edge.

The Falcons hext will play Tuesday when they visit Utica Eisenhower. Game time is 4 p.m.

Seaholm will entertain Ferndale Tuesday at 4:15 p.m.

IN WAYNE-OAKLAND League (WOL) play Wednesday, Bloomfield

Hills Andover bowed to front-running Clarkston, 19-11.
"We gave them three unearned runs in the first inning." Baron Coach Gorde Richardson said. The game some indicates. Richardson added. "We just committed our errors at the wrong time."

Debbie Hubbard took the loss for Andover, despite the hot hitting of Tracy Boone and Karen Santoni, mainstays of the Barons' offense.

Andover will travel to Waterford Kettering Monday and will host West Bloomfield Wednesday. Game time each day is 4 p.m.
