Nan Cummings wed to Daniel Otting

Nan H. Cummings of Farmington was married Sept. 7 to Daniel W. Otting of Dallas, Tex., in a candlelight, double-ring ceremony in St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Farmington. The Rev. Walter Rukowsky officiated.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. P. Kenard Cummings and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Otting.

The bride was married in the antique satin gothic style gown which belonged to her mother. Her veil, also her mother's, was a braided satin coronet holding a French illusion veil. She carried long-stem orange roses.

Her former roommate, Julie Gies of Birmingham, was maid of honor. She wore a teal blue floral dress with jacket and carried a bouquet of orange baby woodroses with stephanotis.

Richard Weisenburger of Mt. Pleasant was the best man.

Congratulations.

You just passed Sid and Edna's Tank and Tummy Station for the third time.

Our road maps and Triptiks will keep you from going round in circles and also save your gas and sanity. Our tour books will tell you where to eat and stay, and whether Fido is allowed. But what's really super-duper is our new Travel Information Center. By just calling a toll-free number, Triple-A members get all the travel information they need without even visiting one of our neighborhood offices. We'll chart your maps, make out your Triptiks, provide your tour books, make your reservations at guaranteed rates, tell you about the availability of gasoline or campsites—even where the fish are biting. What we can't tell you on the phone, we'll mail to you. So why not join us and get your Triple-A membership card today? If you're traveling without our card, you aren't traveling.

We want to do more for you. (And we do.)
