

Groves receives trophy

BIRMINGHAM -- Groves High School has been awarded the "all events" trophy for the second year in a row by the Metro Suburban Activities Association.

The trophy is awarded to the school which accumulates the most points in all association events, both athletic and non-athletic.

Six area schools participate in competition in athletics and such non-athletic activities as debate, forensics, chess, bridge, table tennis and cycling.

OTHER PARTICIPATING schools in addition to Groves are Bloomfield Hills Lahser, Southfield Lathrup, Rochester Adams, Royal Oak Dendero and Utica Eisenhower.

At the end of each school year, first through fifth place winners in each activity are awarded points. The school with the most points in both athletic and non-athletic competition is awarded the trophy.

The trophy is presented at a fall dinner meeting attended by persons involved in the Metro Suburban Activities Association.

"We are very pleased and proud to have won it a second time," Mrs. Jean Sharrard, Groves assistant principal, activities, said.

2 candidates meet the press

OAKLAND COUNTY—The two candidates for elected county executive will be featured at a "Candidates Meet the Press" luncheon beginning at noon Thursday at the Pontiac Elks Lodge, 114 Orchard Lake Road in Pontiac.

Democrat Eugene Kutny and Republican Daniel Murphy will answer written questions from the audience. There is a $5 admission charge. For further information and reservations, call 335-6148.

Regional center promotes residents

Two area residents have been promoted to new positions with the Macomb-Oakland Regional Center.

Martin Davidson of Rochester has been promoted to administrative assistant to the director. He will have primary responsibility for the development of agency procedures and special assignments designated by the director.

Jay Nagy of Bloomfield Township has assumed the position of director of nursing and has responsibility for the agency's nursing and nursing home program.
