The flowers at the funeral were truly a beautiful picture of the beautiful park and flowers that are in evidence there. It shows that they are not of the "don't care kind."

Children's Day Exercises.

A very large audience gathered at the Methodist church last Sunday evening to see and hear the children's festival.

The superintendent, Mrs. Truscott, assisted by Mrs. Stoney and Mrs. Welch with the music, had prepared a fine program which was well rendered. Prof. Goodrich, Mrs. Welch, Mr. Way and the Misses Kennedy joined with the girls' choir to make a very pleasing chorus. The little folks in their recitations and exercises were very interesting and amusing.

The purpose of the offering was explained and the audience generously responded with $4.50. This will go into the Children's day fund to help needy and worthy students who are seeking an education.

The program was more varied than any given during the past year, the only serious drawback being the absence of boys above the primary grade. With so many nice girls who took part so creditably there ought to be at least a few boys with spunk enough to appear in public.

The girls under the leadership of Edessa Warner and Lucie Sprague had gathered and tastefully arranged many flowers to grace the occasion.

The Ward Sunday-school celebrated Sunday afternoon with a carefully worked out program prepared by the assistant superintendent, Mrs. Isaac Bond.

A chorus composed of Blanche Anglin, May Johnson, Lucile Randall, Allie Nichols, Elva Geister, Ethel Graham and the pastor, with Mrs. Bond at the organ, furnished the music. Marshall Davis, Howard Chamberlin, Sam'l Davis, Harold Cox, Owen Anglin, Thos. Cairns among the boys and Leone Simpson, Wanda Hahn, Opal Graham, and Meri Graham took part in the recitations and exercises. Leone, Wanda and Opal sang a greeting song to open the program. Rev. Ward gave the scripture reading and prayer, and the pastor explained the object of the Sunday school, inviting all present to enroll as members. The purpose of the collection was explained and a generous response of $2.50 was made to assist worthy young people to secure a christian education.

Little Miss Mildred Bond sang a sweet little song, and the pastor made his first public appearance as a soloist, which was also amusing.

The Free Sewing

Machine makes life worth living.

You simply raise the lid—one movement—a light and easy lift, and you are ready to sew.

The head is up, fastened in place—the apron is raised giving plenty of room for the knees—the drawers are unlocked ready for use—the belt is on above and below, in fact the machine is ready for business.

Now, isn't that convenient! Isn't FREE automatic lift a feature to be appreciated? Of course there are other automatic lifts on sewing machines—"contraptions" to raise the head automatically with the lid, but none like The FREE. It is a perfectly balanced arrangement carefully studied and
