

YOUR BACKACHE WILL YIELD

To Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Rockland, Maine.—"I was troubled for a long time with pains in my back and side, and was miserable in every way. I doctored until I was discouraged, and thought I should never get well. I read a testimonial about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and thought I would try it. After taking three bottles I was cured, and never felt so well in all my life. I recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to all my friends."—Mrs. Wm. Young, 6 Columbia Avenue, Rockland, Me.

and dog were fighting for their lives, particularly the man.

Mr. Steinberger had nothing with which to defend himself, and they swarmed all over him, some even trying to get at his throat, and all he could do was to grab them with his hands, throw them down on the floor and stamp on them.

Fortunately for himself, he wore heavy top boots, with his trousers tucked inside. Finally his cries were heard, and a member of the family came to his relief and opened the door. Steinberger was lying nearly exhausted, and bleeding from over a dozen wounds. The dog also was badly torn and bitten, but still alive. Between them they had killed 14 rats.

See Final Victory Over Tuberculosis.

Dr. William C. Oster says: "Tuberculosis will be finally eradicated in an open question. It is a foe that is very deeply entrenched in the human race. Very hard it will be to eradicate completely, but what we think of what has been done in one generation, how the mortality in many places has been reduced more than 50 per cent.—indeed, in some places 100 per cent.—it is a battle of hope, and so long as we are fighting with hope, the victory is in sight."

Dodging Responsibility.

"Why should a man pay rent when he can own his own home?" said the thrifty citizen.

"I don't know," answered Mr. Meek ton, "unless it's because you're rather have your wife speak her mind to the landlord than to you when the place gets run down."

FARMER HAS DESPERATE BATTLE WITH RODENTS

ACCIDENTALLY LOCKED IN GRANARY WITH DOG, HE IS SERIOUSLY WOUNDED.

Old Zionsville, Pa.—David Steinberger, residing on the road leading from Zionsville to Dillinger, had a frightful experience recently. He entered an old and long disused granary in his barn, when the light alarmed the door shut and the latch caught on the outside.

Mr. Steinberger had a little rat terrier with him, and the door had hardly closed when the man, in the dim light, saw that the place was swarming with rats. His dog immediately started on the rats, and the latter, cornered, put up a desperate fight, and in a few minutes both man and dog were lying on the floor.

PERFORMS AN AMAZING FEAT

Doctor Swings Baby by Heels While Rushing Through Gotham Streets in Auto, Saving Life.

New York.—By treatment so heroic that many persons who save it thought the surgeon was demented, Dr. Burke of Bellevue hospital recently saved the life of Evan Kilken, nine months old. The baby was choking to death slowly from a fact which he had attempted to swallow, and which had lodged in his windpipe. Seated in an ambulance which was going through the east side streets at a 50-mile clip, Dr. Burke seized the baby by the heels, swung him head downward several times, and then began swishing him about his head. When the ambulance reached Twenty-third street and first avenue the surgeon heard something strike the bottom of the ambulance with a metallic ring. He also heard the baby give a gasp of relief.

Pausing in the heroic treatment which he was practicing, the surgeon looked toward the bottom of the ambulance, and was delighted to see the six-pronged piece of iron lying there. Then he took the baby tenderly in his arms and endeavored to make up by soothing treatment for all the necessary rough usage to which he had subjected the youngster since the race against death started. Little Evan was almost exhausted. The surgeon knew, however, his patient's life was saved, and that in a few hours he would be all right.

Play Indian; Burn Girl at Stake.

New York.—Little Annie Mackie, a pretty girl of six years, was burned terribly and will die because of the cruelty of her father, John Mackie, a seven years old, to play Indian and see a paleface burned at the stake in Bayonne, N. J. The children were playing in the yard of Annie's home. Johnny played the part of a brave, and claimed Annie as his captive. He crowded the child into a corner of the fence and held her with one hand and with the other struck a match, he applied the flame to the hem of her skirt, and in a moment the little one was a mass of flames.

A woman employed in the house heard the shrill cries of terror from little Annie and rushed to her with a bucket of water which she had poked up in the kitchen.

By this time Annie's clothes had been burned from her body, and her hair, which had been hanging loosely about her shoulders, had been burned off also.

The little one was hurried to the Bayonne hospital, where the physician said there was no chance of her recovery.

THAW MAKES ANOTHER ATTEMPT TO GET OUT OF ASYLUM FOR INSANE.

MRS. CLEVELAND CALLED.

Ray Lamphere, Said to Be Dying.—Watching Filibusters—Various Matters of Note.

Harry K. Thaw may have another chance to prove his sanity in his fight for release from the Matteawan asylum, which he was committed to a year ago last February after his trial for the killing of his wife's doctor, Dr. William C. Gurney.

Justice William C. Gurney of Brooklyn, of the appellate division of the supreme court, has granted a new writ of habeas corpus returnable before Justice Mills, of the supreme court, at White Plains, N. Y., Thursday, June 17, at 10:30 a. m. The writ was issued on application of Charles McPherson, of Poughkeepsie, Thaw's attorney.

Justice Mills, before whom the new writ is made returnable, has a similar writ for Thaw last June.

This writ kept Thaw out of Matteawan for a while and he spent his summer in the Poughkeepsie jail and was transferred to the White Plains jail in September in October Justice Mills denied the motion for a writ of habeas corpus to Thaw's sanity.

When the appellate division in days ago affirmed the decision of Justice Mills denying a jury hearing, Justice McPherson wrote a dissenting opinion holding that Thaw was illegally detained in Matteawan, and it is believed that he will in this which prompted Thaw's attempt to go before the Gurney.

Mrs. Cleveland a Witness.

Mrs. Frances Polson Cleveland, widow of the late Grover Cleveland, called as a witness in the trial of Abraham Lincoln, the magazine writer, on a charge of grand larceny, began in the supreme court in New York Tuesday. The charge against Lincoln was that he had stolen a newspaper article which Brannen here is alleged to have disposed of to a newspaper in the representation that it was President Cleveland's. The article, Mr. Cleveland afterward repudiated the article. A murder trial which was on the calendar of Justice Fitzgerald's court was interrupted in order to meet the convenience of Mrs. Cleveland, who wishes to leave this city tomorrow for her summer home in New Hampshire.

Mrs. Cleveland was dressed in deep mourning. Her testimony was expected to be taken on scene as the selection of the jury was completed, and one of two witnesses had been called to establish the sale of the article by the defendant.

Rifles for Venezuela.

Packed in pine boxes and evidently ready to start on a journey, a quantity of rifles and ammunition delivered to be destined for Venezuelan revolutionaries, was discovered at Franklin, Va., Tuesday.

The rifles are said to be a part of a consignment of 15,000 Mauser weapons shipped from New York to Louisiana and back to Franklin, La., as planes and packed to weather the trip to South America. The filibuster suspect, Nanticoke, is lying near Franklin, and in the Blackwater river below the steamer is her consort, the tug Dispatch.

The return cutter Pamlico is blocking the two suspects, and it is not believed either could pass her even in the darkness. Orders have been issued for the Washington to visit the Nanticoke and the tug Dispatch from clearing.

Ray Lamphere Dying.

In response to a letter from her brother, Ray Lamphere, Mrs. Finley buried to the Michigan City, Ind., prison, to see the prisoner, notorious through his association with Mrs. Gurney, the arch-murderer, for the burning of whose home Lamphere was sent to the penitentiary.

Lamphere in his letter said he recently had suffered four hemorrhages and believed death was imminent. This letter was confirmed in the mind of Mrs. Finley by the refusal of the prison authorities to allow her to visit her brother in the hospital ward.

Despite her pleadings the deputy warden was obdurate, replying: "Lamphere is extremely low and cannot see any one."

It is understood an effort to secure his immediate parole will be made but his demise is expected before this step can be taken.
