8 seniors awarded grants

BIRMINGHAM — Eight seniors from Seaholm and Groves High Schools have been awarded grants toward their college expenses from the Birmingham Student Loan and Scholarship Fund.

Two of the students received named grants which are administered by the fund committee and six others were chosen by the scholarship fund board to receive board grants.

Cynthia Johns of Groves High School is the recipient of the Joseph and Elizabeth Roura Memorial Award.

ANN SOLONIKA of Seaholm was awarded the American Association of University Women's (AAUW) grant in memory of Lucy Bosley.

Recipients of board grants are Sarah Larson, Ronald Colman and Cynthia Miller, all of Seaholm, and Lenore Gonzales, Brian Belt and Terri Shaffer, all from Groves.

The grants provide financial assistance for the students for one year. Recipients are selected on the basis of need, scholarship and character.

The students were honored at a reception at the administration building of the Birmingham Schools on Thursday (June 6).

Debaters win state awards

BIRMINGHAM—Two individual awards and two team trophies were won by Seaholm High School debaters in the Boyne Lilac Forensic and Debate Contest held recently at Boyne Mountain.

Rush Pearson won a first-place trophy for humorous interpretive reading and Laura Innes received a fourth place in interpretive story telling. The team of David Walters, Steve Bottom, Steve Klinsky and Chris Wells earned sixth place in Division A and Andrea Fischer, Bob Starkman, Leonard Levin and Jim Frost took fifth place in Division B.

Both teams debated the 1974-75 topic: Resolved that the United States should significantly change the method of selecting presidential and vice presidential candidates.

Nine-hundred students participated in the contest, which was sponsored by the Michigan High School Forensic Association.
