Rev. Allen is ordained

THE REV. TERRY ALLEN, the Rev. Terry Allen, associate minister at Embury United Methodist Church of Birmingham for the past year, was elected to order's orders and received as a full member of the Detroit Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church on June 5 in Adrian.

He was ordained an elder in the United Methodist Church by Bishop Dwight E. Loder, resident of the Michigan area of the United Methodist Church.

Mr. Allen has been assigned by Bishop Loder to serve as minister at Flint Park United Methodist Church in Flint for the coming year.

Mr. Allen was graduated from Grrosse Pointe High School in 1966. He received a bachelor of philosophy degree from Grand Valley

State College in 1970 and a master of theology degree from Boston University School of Theology in 1973.

Church holds its reunion

A reunion of friends and families of the Big Beaver United Methodist Church, 3152 Rochester Road, Troy, will be held Sunday. The old hall of the first Big Beaver Methodist Church will call everyone together for morning worship at 9:30 a.m. with the Rev. Michael Grajcar officiating. Sunday School will be from 10-11 a.m.

A melody of gospel tunes, reminiscent of the revival era, will begin the worship service.

A tent and tables for the old-time picnic/reunion will be set up on the grounds. Those attending are asked to bring a picnic basket with something to share and their own table service.

There will be games for everyone and a display of oldtime pictures. The Big Beaver Methodist Church was established in 1845. The congregation observed its 100th anniversary on Oct. 21, 1945.

On Oct. 24 fire reduced the building to a heap of charred debris. Church services were held again in a small portion completed on Dec. 5, 1948.

Meeting draws area ministers

By ELSPETH BEIER

The congregation of the Franklin Community Church (Methodist) was unusually well represented in the ministerial ranks at the Detroit Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church held June 5-7 in Adrian.

The Rev. Robert Koch, Brent Webster and Stanley Sutton, all long-time members of the Franklin church, each achieved new ranks at the hands of Bishop Dwight Loder during the Wednesday, June 5, ceremonies.

He has completed the requirement of serving a church for a full year after seminary graduation.

Brent Webster, a 20-year Franklin resident, was ordained a deacon of the conference, having completed his first year at the Methodist Seminary of Ohio in Delaware.

STANLEY SUTTON, an eight-year Franklin resident, was voted approval by the conference and has been accepted as a first-year student at the Garrett Evangelical Theological Seminary in Evanston, Ill.

Accompanied by the Franklin Community Church's two ministers, the Rev. Frank Cowick and the Rev. Robert L. Brown, the three men joined the first church member to become a minister, the Rev. Harold Morse, at the Adrian-based conference.

Mr. Morse serves St. Luke's United Methodist Church as well as Paint Creek United Methodist Church, both in Rochester. He was ordained an elder a year ago, after graduation from Hillsdale College and Colgate-Rochester seminary in New York.

He will return to his high school, Birmingham Groves, where he was the 1956 senior class president, to offer the invocation and benediction during the graduation exercises Tuesday.

Mr. Koch, a graduate of Bloomfield Hills Andover High School,

Albion College and Garrett Seminary, as well as being the "visiting scholar" at Cambridge University in England, serves two churches, the Bristol and the Diamond United Methodist in Flint.

WEBSTER, ALSO a Groves High School graduate, attended Central Michigan University where he earned a degree in business administration.

He worked for a year before leaving his Lansing bank position and enrolling in the Ohio seminary.

Webster's first official function within the church will be the baptizing of a god-son and nephew, Joseph Ronald Webster, July 21, at the Franklin church.

Dear Friends:

Our clergymen inconspicuously minister to our spiritual needs, seven days each week. They are always available for sick calls, weddings, personal problems and death. We seldom give enough thought to the burdens that our clergymen so cheerfully bear.

Although their work is spiritually rewarding, they both deserve and appreciate our expression of gratitude.

Respectfully

Edward J. Lynch
