

ALSAC event attracts 240

Some 60 celebrities and 180 other players teed off to the benefit of St. Jude Children's Research Hospital Tuesday at Great Oaks Country Club in Rochester.

The event was the second annual St. Jude Celebrity Golf Classic, raising money for ALSAC (Aiding Leukemia-Stricken American Children) and the Memphis hospital.

OVER $12,000 was gained through the event, which was sponsored by Bloomfield Township industrialist Marshall Robbins.

The foursome with former Lion Dorne Dibble won the event with a nine-under-par 62. He played with Bob Cleland, Dr. Bill Hardy and Troy super senior Tom Draper.

Two other foursomes also had 62s. Tommy Horton, a golf professional at Rackham Country Club in Detroit, played with D. Kinsman, B. Mc Masters and C. Renold, and celebrity Tom Wilson teamed up with S. Carpenter, S. Jaffe and Pemberton.

TO DETERMINE the placings, scorecards were compared from the day's play on the first two holes, with match play computation. Dibble's foursome birdied the first hole and was thereby named event champion.

Horton's group had a birdie on the second hole while Wilson's players went par, par for third place.

Larry Thompson, a Houdini-type performer on CKLW television, played with D. Harris, Ken Smith and R. West for a 63, tying Detroit Lion Ed Flanagan, Dr. George Gerber, R. Hughes and C. Joseph. Thompson's group had a birdie on the first hole to earn the No. 4 position for the tournament.

Golf professional Al Mengert, non-celebrity (but former Detroit Lion) Jim Ninowski, Pat Costello and John Gnaue were sixth with a 64.

TEN FOURSOMES shot 65s, led by celebrities Linc Jackson, Larry Adderly, Walter Burkemo, Mel Farr, Budd Lynch, Willie Norwood, John Wilson, Dan Olsievich, Marc Avery, Joe Ginsberg and Gene Bone.

The tournament was a best-ball event. Four players hit a tee shot, then tried their next one from the position of the best first stroke, and so on.

V. Reo Campian of Bloomfield Hills and Dr. A. A. Yezbick of West Bloomfield were chairmen for the event.
