At Meadow Brook Music lovers open season

More than 300 people gathered to toast the opening of the Meadow Brook Music Festival's (MBMF) 11th season Thursday at Meadow Brook Hall.

Oakland University President and Mrs. Donald O'Dowd and MBMF general chairpeople, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Cafiero, welcomed guests to the pre-concert dinner, held on the outdoor terrace at the hall.

"I want to welcome you to the 11th season of the Meadow Brook Music Festival," O'Dowd told guests in an after-dinner speech. "The MBMF is a co-operative and community venture. We know and I think you know that there is no way you can run a program like this off box receipts. We thank you for all your support."

TAKING PART in the evening's festivities were MBMF vice-chair people, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Petersen, Mrs. Sixten Ehrling, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Nederlander, Sen. and Mrs. Donald Bishop, Mr. and Mrs.

Robert Fife, Wayne State University President and Mrs. George Gullen, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Jones and Mrs. and Mrs. Leonard Lewis.

The opening night performance presented the Detroit Symphony Orchestra under the direction of Sixten Ehrling and featured pianist Gary Graffman.

The 11th season combines a variety of cultural programs from ballet to pops to classical and ends Aug. 24 at the conclusion of a new attraction, Jazz week.

Clune Walsh and Maggie McKenna of Southfield.
