Wabeek play Tuesday

Greater Detroit's underprivileged youngsters will benefit the most from Tuesday's second J. P. McCarthy-Wabeek Celebrity Golf Invitational. The festivities on the links will take place at Wabeek Country Club in Bloomfield Hills. All proceeds from this year's version of the annual 18-hole, par-71 event will flow into Detroit's five-year-old Police Athletic League (PAL). Staffed by off-duty officers and civilian volunteers, PAL is structured to enrich life for youngsters through a comprehensive activities network. Golf celebrities scheduled to participate in the invitational this year include Orville Moody, Doug Sanders, J. C. Sneed, Lee Trevino and Tom Watson. Among the other sports celebrities scheduled to participate are Dave DeBusschere, Alex Delvecchio, Gary Unger plus Gordie and Mark Howe. Patron tickets for the invitational are priced at $25. The price covers belonging to the spectator gallery, a hot dog and beer lunch plus admission to a demonstration by Paul Hahn Jr. Hahn is an internationally renowned golf trick shot artist. Pictured are invitational chairman J. P. McCarthy (left), WJR-Radio's popular morning disc jockey, and celebrity guest Joe Garagiola, NBC-TV's gregarious sportscaster. For invitational ticket information, call 224-0880. Wabeek is located on West Long Lake Road between Middlebelt and Telegraph roads.

Fox picked for OCC job

Sidney Fox has been appointed as head basketball coach at Oakland Community College (OCC) for the 1974-75 school season. His appointment was announced Tuesday by Prentice Ryan, OCC's athletic director.

Fox, 34, succeeds Tom McPhillips at Orchard Ridge Campus, Lynn Reed at Highland Lakes Campus plus Dave Wenzel and Lew Parry at Auburn Heights Campus.

The new coach will consolidate OCC's cage program and field a single varsity team representing all three OCC campuses.

THE NEW team will compete in the Michigan Community College Athletic Association's Eastern Conference.

Fox will continue to serve as executive director for the Michigan Amateur Athletic Association (MAAU), a post he has held for the past two years.

Fox's basketball roots run deep. Between 1966-74, he commanded the joint responsibilities of athletic director, along with varsity basketball and football coach at Bloomfield Hills Koeper.

Between 1964-66, he was an assistant basketball and football coach at Detroit Central High.

The only cars in the world that get 24mpg.

Because it has the same type of steering system as the racing Ferrari and a luxurious interior like the Mercedes-Benz 280...

Because it has front-wheel drive like the Cadillac Eldorado and just about the same headroom and legroom as the Rolls-Royce Silver Shadow...

Because it has the same type of ignition system as the Porsche 911, the same trunk space as the Lincoln Continental Mark IV and the same independent front suspension as the Aston Martin...

Because it has all this—and also gets virtually the same mileage as the Volkswagen—that makes the Audi 100LS the only car in the world that gets 24 miles to the gallon.*
